Psychology Program Checklist

Bachelor of Science – Major Program

Program Prerequisites: PSYC 100 & BIOL 111 or 112. The department recommends these courses be taken in U1 if equivalent courses were not previously completed through advanced standing credits. These courses will be counted as electives or foundation requirements when completed at McGill (consult a Faculty of Science Advisor).

Major Program: Psychology (54 credits)

credits
3	Statistics:	PSYC 305
12	Required courses:	PSYC 211	PSYC 212	PSYC 213	PSYC 215
12	List A (6 credits):	PSYC	List B (6 credits):	PSYC
		PSYC		PSYC
6	Psychology 300 level or above:	PSYC	PSYC
9	Psychology 400/500 level:	PSYC	PSYC	PSYC
12	300 level or above in any of: Psychology, Anatomy, Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Mathematics, Physiology, or Psychiatry

NB: any sub-300-level prerequisites for such courses can be counted as elective credits

Elective Courses (36 credits)

(Science students may declare minors; see: https://www.mcgill.ca/science/undergraduate/programs

36

Foundation Year (U0) Students or Students with Advanced Standing Credits: 30 credits total
Students who are admitted as U0 must complete foundation course requirements.
If you have been admitted with less than 30 advanced standing credits, please consult a Faculty of Science Advisor.
To earn a B.Sc. degree, students must complete 120 credits.

Total credits: 120

Science students majoring in psychology can find additional info about Psych department requirements by visiting https://www.mcgill.ca/psychology/undergraduate/programs-study/bachelor-science-bsc