Temporary Assignment (non-academic casual)
Association of Graduate Students Employed at McGill (AGSEM)

Posting Date: Friday, February 17, 2017
Expiry Date: Friday, February 24, 2017
Hiring Unit: Client Services – School of Continuing Studies
Job Title: Invigilation
Salary: $12.16 per hour
Term/Duration: Thursday, April 13, 2017 to Thursday, April 27, 2017
Shifts: 5:30 – 9:30pm
Reference number: AGSEM-CS

Primary Duties:

The primary duty of invigilators is to enforce University Exam Regulations and to ensure that students may write exams while demonstrating their academic ability under circumstances that are as conductive as possible to this exercise. Invigilators are expected to ensure that there is no interference of any student by another student, and that there are no distractions or disruptions in the area of the students’ writing place. Invigilators must pay constant attention to those students under their surveillance, ensuring that cheating does not take place.

Requirements:

To be eligible to work as an invigilator, you must have a valid Social Insurance Number (SIN). Having a valid Social Insurance Number (SIN) is a condition of employment. If you are an international student, you must have a valid immigration document allowing you to be employed by McGill University. Please be advised that Continuing Studies students are not eligible to work as invigilators, as this would constitute a conflict of interest.

In addition, kindly note that invigilators are required to attend a paid training session prior to the examination period. This is a condition of employment. If you do not attend a training session, your employment will be terminated immediately.

How to Apply:

Anyone interested in applying to this position must complete and send the availability form found below, as well as their Curriculum Vitae to Mr. Johnny Martuccio, no later than Wednesday, March 15th, 2017. You may do so in-person at 688 Sherbrooke Street West, 11th floor – suite 1199, or by email at johnny.martuccio@mcgill.ca.
