STUDENT SERVICES
At Campus Life & Engagement, we realize that learning goes on both inside & outside of the classroom.

We also believe that leadership can be learned and developed, and that anyone can be involved in the leadership process. We are here to help you navigate the different opportunities at McGill and connect you to roles that build on your interests, passions, and skills.

Whether you already consider yourself an involved student and intend to continue being involved or are looking to get more involved now at university, Campus Life & Engagement is excited to offer different programs, services, and resources designed to support your success throughout your life at McGill and beyond!

We hope you discover and make the most of relevant and exciting involvement and leadership opportunities on and off campus.

An online portal with events and group listings.

Create an account using your McGill username and password.

The most frequent advice current McGill students offer to new students is to get involved!

Activities Night

www.ssmu.mcgill.ca

An easy way to talk to members of SSMU and McGill’s over 250 clubs and groups, find out about their programs and events, and sign up for their listservs.

Head to the University Centre (3480 McTavish) for an Activities Night and see what opportunities to get involved there are at McGill.
