The McGill Sports Camp Welcomes Student Parents and their Children!

Recognizing the additional financial barriers often faced by student parents, the McGill Sports Camp is teaming with the McGill Family Care Program to offer one week of free camp to three lucky campers! These campers will be able to attend one of the last three weeks of McGill Sports Camp free of charge.

The McGill Sports Camp boasts an impressive program full of different sports. Your child will be exposed to all sorts of different sports to hone in on their interests. They will also be able to access swimming lessons. The counselors for the most part are experts in the field of physical education, health, and wellness. Some of them are even McGill’s own Varsity athletes. This program normally costs $270/week!

The following criteria will determine whether you and your child are eligible to apply for the scholarship.

● Campers must be between 6-15 years of age
● One parent must be a parent studying at McGill at any level and returning to their studies in the fall. Parents who are currently on a leave may still apply.

For more information about the Sports Camp itself, please consult their website here: http://www.mcgillathletics.ca/sports/2012/11/1/1101122046.aspx
