

McGill

Queer/Empire: Exploring the Reach of Queer Theory and Its Relationship to Law

Friday 17 April 2009

McGill University, Faculty of Law
3644 Peel Street

For information: robert.leckey@mcgill.ca; kimberley.brooks@mcgill.ca

3:15 – 4:45

Open Session – Room 16

Kenji Yoshino, New York University
“The Reluctant Imperialist?: Legal and Literary Empire in The Tempest”

Kendall Thomas, Columbia University
“Flag Wars”

Jenni Millbank, University of Technology Sydney
“Reproductive Outsiders – The Perils and Disruptive Potential of Reproductive Coalitions”

4:45 – 5:45

Wine & cheese - Common Room

Workshop Participants

Nicholas Bamforth, Queen’s College, University of Oxford
Jaco Barnard, University of Cape Town
Jon Binnie, Manchester Metropolitan University
Susan Boyd, University of British Columbia
Brenda Cossman, University of Toronto
Margaret Denike, Carleton University
Lee Edelman, Tufts University
David Eng, University of Pennsylvania
Shohini Ghosh, AJK Mass Communication Research Centre
Leslie Green, Balliol College, University of Oxford
Ratna Kapur, Centre for Feminist Legal Research (New Delhi)
Jenni Millbank, University of Technology Sydney
Les Moran, Birkbeck College, University of London
Chantal Nadeau, Concordia University
Jeff Redding, Saint Louis University
Ruthann Robson, City University of New York
Becki Ross, University of British Columbia
Nan Seuffert, University of Waikato
Kendall Thomas, Columbia University
Kenji Yoshino, New York University