Tenure Track Position in Counselling (Counseling) Psychology

The Department of Educational & Counselling Psychology (<http://www.mcgill.ca/edu-ecp/>), Faculty of Education, McGill University invites applications for a tenure track position at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor rank, effective August 1, 2010.

Our Counselling Psychology program offers three degrees: two MA non-thesis programs (internship and research), and a PhD program, accredited by the CPA, the APA, and the OPQ (licensing body of psychologists in Quebec). The programs operate from a scientist-practitioner model. Current faculty have expertise in health and wellness; feminism, multiculturalism, and career psychology; and psychotherapy processes and outcomes.

We are searching for a candidate with a strong counselling psychology identity whose research and teaching interests are in the areas of career counseling and/or multiculturalism. The successful candidate will have an earned doctorate in counselling psychology or related discipline at the time of appointment; (b) be a licensed or license-eligible psychologist (in Quebec); (c) demonstrate evidence of scholarly productivity and publication commensurate with rank at a research-intensive university; (d) have demonstrated competence in counselling and teaching; and e) be able to supervise master's and doctoral students. The ability to liaise with the Quebec licensing body of career counselors (OCCOPPQ) would be an asset.

The application deadline is January 15, 2010 or until the position is filled. Persons wishing to be considered for this position should forward a statement of research interests, a statement of teaching philosophy and interests, a curriculum vitae, and samples of research, and arrange to have three letters of recommendation submitted directly to:

Professor Alenoush Saroyan, Chair, Department of Educational and Counselling Psychology, McGill University, 3700 McTavish Street, Montreal, Quebec, Canada H3A 1Y2. Electronic submissions are accepted and should be forwarded to: ecp@mcgill.ca. Please enter "Counseling Search" and your name in the subject field.

McGill is located in Montréal, Canada, one of the most international and livable cities in North America. English is the language of instruction at McGill, but knowledge of French is an asset. In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, this advertisement is directed to citizens or permanent residents of Canada. However, all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply. McGill University is committed to equity in employment, and encourages applications from women and men, persons with disabilities, members of visible minorities, and aboriginal persons.
