

RESEARCH SEMINAR SERIES - FALL 2009

DATE	SPEAKER	TITLE
8 Sept.	Jill Boruff Instruction & Liaison Librarian Life Science Library, McGill University	WORKSHOP FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS Keeping Current in Rehabilitation Sciences
15 Sept.	Patricia Belchior, OT, PhD Post-doctoral fellow, Department of Occupational Therapy, U of Florida	Can Videogame Training Improve Elders' Visual Attention and Benefit Everyday Activities?
22 Sept.	Ted Milner, PhD Department of Kinesiology, McGill University	Robot-assisted rehabilitation of hand function after stroke
29 Sept	Jenny Lewis, OT, PhD Post Doctoral Fellow, The Alan Edwards Centre for Research on Pain, McGill University	Body in mind: exploring cortical correlates for body perception disturbance in complex regional pain syndrome (CRPS)
6 Oct.	Jocelyn Faubert École d'Optométrie, Université de Montréal	Using immersive environments to assess the influence of dynamic scenes on visual function and postural control
13 Oct.	Matthew Hunt PhD Post-doctoral fellow, Centre de recherche en éthique de l'Université de Montréal	Explorations of ethics and global health initiatives: from humanitarian work to international clinical electives for students of the health professions
20 Oct.	Graduate Student Seminars 1 School of Physical and Occupational Therapy, McGill University	CANCELLED
27 Oct.	Patrick Boissy PhD Département de Kinésiologie, Université de Sherbrooke	Technical, practical and clinical challenges of in-home telerehabilitation for older adults with musculoskeletal impairments
3 Nov.	Stephen Frey PhD Neurology and Neurosurgery Montreal Neurological Institute	The human orbitofrontal cortex investigated through neuroimaging
10 Nov.	Graduate Student Seminars 2 School of Physical and Occupational Therapy, McGill University
17 Nov.	Sam Mussalam PhD Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering, McGill University	Can Reward be used to enhance movement recovery; Insights from Engineering and Neurophysiology
24 Nov.	Edgar Ramos Vieira, PhD Post-doctoral fellow, Department of Nursing, University of Alberta	Dynamics of Musculoskeletal Safety: Supporting Mobility & Reducing Injuries in Older Adults & Care Providers
1 Dec.	Eric Racine PhD Neuroethics Research Unit, Institut de recherches cliniques de Montréal	Ethics and prognostication of outcomes: Perspectives from studies of the public understanding of neurological disorders and of variability in prognostication practices

Seminars are presented in Davis House, 3654 Promenade Sir-William-Osler, Room 3 at 4 p.m.
For information, please call Liliane Cardinal at (514) 398-2271 or Dr. Philippe Archambault at (514) 398-7323 or check <http://www.mcgill.ca/calendar/>.