The McGill Office of Religious and Spiritual Life is your religious and spiritual hub on campus. We encourage students to carve out time during their busy university careers for spiritual exploration and whole-person wellness. We are dedicated to raising religious literacy about traditional world religions and newer religious movements. Our multi-faith team of volunteer chaplains helps connect students with their existing faith communities both on and off campus. We offer support to students of any religious identity or no particular religious identity who wish to find meaning beyond academics and to form healthy life habits that invite spiritual wellbeing, inner peace, and that equip them to live harmoniously in a pluralistic society.

Please note: This list is not exhaustive, but is a work in progress, offered as a service to students in search of a religious home-away-from-home. The presence of a place of worship in this listing does not constitute an endorsement, as MORSL has not personally visited these congregations.
