THE 15TH ANNIVERSARY REUNION CONCERT
MCGILL JAZZ ENSEMBLE I
EUROPEAN TOUR

For immediate release

Montreal, September 25, 2007 - In early 1992, the McGill Jazz Ensemble I, due to its International reputation, was invited to open the annual Guinness Jazz Festival at the Cork Opera House, fronting for Cleo Lane and John Dankworth. A committee was formed to raise funds in order to get the band to Ireland. The originally planned trip to Cork, was expanded to a 14-day tour, with a total of 12 performances in France, England and Ireland.

The original members reunited for a 10th anniversary concert and are now happy to get together again, for the 15th anniversary. What is fantastic about this group is that they are all still working in the music industry and have become some of Canada's finest professional working musicians. Come and hear how they sound, fifteen years later!
