Bruce Gordon was born in Winnipeg and studied at the University of King's College/Dalhousie in Nova Scotia. After completing a doctorate at the University of Saint Andrews in Scotland he was a research fellow in Germany. In 1994 he was appointed to the History Department at St Andrews and he taught there for almost fifteen years. In 2008 he and his family moved to New Haven, Connecticut, as he took up the position of professor of Church History at Yale Divinity School. He is now the Titus Street Professor of Ecclesiastical History and also teaches in the History Department at Yale.

The Wadsworth Memorial Calvin Lecture was established in 1997 through the generosity of Dr. G. Campbell Wadsworth.
