- Professional Partnering Program

Review: President's Visit

- The Lunch time crowd was good, but we had expected more people for the the event later in the evening.
- There was an extra gratuity charge for the food services of 40$
- The CLA Montreal chapter only covered half of the cost of the food.
- The bill will be sent to Aude and the CLA cheque will also be given to her.

Web 2.You

- Volunteers are lined up and everything seems to be ready.

SIS Shirts

- The results of the survey found that people are interested in hoodies and t-shirts in red and black. The label preferred was the white one with lower case letters.
- Rosanne will check with the bookstore for prices
- It will be necessary to take deposits for the clothing

Public Libraries Talk

- Aude is working on this event for March, she has talked with librarians at Atwater and the JPL. Perhaps Cote St. Luc Library aswell.
- Maybe the Web 2.You conference will be a good chance to network to find participants.

Freedom to Read Event

- This event will be held Tuesday and Wednesday next week in the lounge.
- We will take the names of those who participate for a draw for CLA items and a gift certificate for Chapters.

- Graham will take photos on Tuesday and Nell will also be there to help Tuesday and Wednesday and Ben will be there on Wednesday.
- Brittany will speak to Jennifer to see if she has any creative ideas for the event.
- Brittany will send out an email to the MLISSA list advertising the event.

Professional Partnering Program

- The only date available at Thomson house is Friday, March 20th. We'll have the event at 6:00 or 6:30.
- MLISSA has given us $200 to help with the finale
- Nell is wondering if we should have gifts for the professional partners. Maybe the gifts could be given to them by their partner. We don't think the student partners will mind not receiving a gift from the program.
- Nell is currently looking for a speaker to have to make the event more special.
