1.3 History

THE FACULTY AND THE COLLEGES

During the nineteenth century several Theological Colleges in Montreal became affiliated with McGill. In 1912 they formed a Joint Board for the academic study of Theology, leaving each denominational College to provide its own professional training for Christian ministry. These relationships between the colleges and the University led naturally to the creation in 1948 of a Faculty of Divinity which assumed the academic functions of the Joint Board. This University Faculty now offers the B.Th. and graduate degree programs.

Today, the Colleges affiliated with the Faculty are: Montreal Diocesan Theological College of the Anglican Church of Canada; Presbyterian College; United Theological College of the United Church of Canada. They are all located close to the University Campus. In 1973 the Colleges pooled their resources in the In-Ministry year to provide joint professional training for ministry. The Colleges now also confer a Master of Divinity degree on their successful candidates for ordination.

1.4 Facilities

The Faculty of Religious Studies is located in the handsome building, erected in 1931, known as the William and Henry Birks Building, formerly Divinity Hall, at 3520 University Street. Besides the usual classrooms, offices and common rooms, this building contains the University Chapel and the Birks Reading Room.

1.5 Birks Lectures

An annual series was established in 1950 through the generosity of the late William M. Birks. The lectures are given by distinguished visitors, usually in late September or early October. The first lecturer was the Right Reverend Leslie Hunter.

More recent lecturers have included Huston Smith, Northrop Frye, Wilfred Cantwell Smith, Gregory Baum, Robert McAfee Brown, Krister Stendahl, and Charles Adams. The Birks Lecturer in 1998 was Jon Levenson.

1.6 Sproule Lectures

An annual series of lectures on Ethics and Public Responsibility was established in 1988 to honour four generations of the Sproule family who have attended McGill University. The lectures are given in late February or early March. The first distinguished lecturer was Thomas Ogletree. The Sproule Lecturer in 1996 was Fred Bird.

2. Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Religious Studies

Honours, Major Concentration and Minor Concentration programs in Religious Studies are offered in cooperation with the Faculty of Arts. These programs are described in the Faculty of Arts section, though Religious Studies B.A. Honours, Majors and Minor students may take any of the courses described below except where otherwise indicated.

Admission is to the Faculty of Arts and all admission requirements and procedures, academic rules and regulations of that Faculty apply to students in these programs.

For general information on B.A. Honours, Major Concentrations and Minor Concentrations and courses, consult the Adviser. For specific course information, consult the instructor.

Honours, Major and Minor students must consult the Chief Adviser prior to registration each year. Appointments can be made by telephoning (514) 398-4121 or visiting the Reception Office in the Birks Building.
3. Master Of Divinity (M.Div.)

Students who have completed a first degree prior to the B.Th. with a minimum CGPA of 2.7 are eligible to apply the B.Th. degree towards the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree conferred by the Theological Colleges. This degree requires, in addition to the B.Th. degree, successful involvement in integrative seminars during the two B.Th. years and a year of professional pastoral study beyond the B.Th., the "In-Ministry Year" offered by the three affiliated theological colleges under the auspices of the Joint Board of Theological Colleges.

The affiliated Colleges underwrite the cost of tuition for their properly registered candidates for ministry. Information about church requirements and the professional year should be sought from the College Principals.

It should be noted that one biblical language, usually Greek, is required by some of the Colleges. Ministerial candidates should consult with the College advisers regarding biblical languages requirements. Prospective candidates for ordination with a B.A. Honours or Major in Religious Studies and a CGPA of 3.3 (B+) may apply for the S.T.M. degree followed upon completion by the professional year.

Applicants for the M.Div. program apply for entry into the McGill B.Th. program (for procedure see below) as well as to one of the Theological Colleges. Supporting documents sent to McGill will automatically be shared with the College in question. College application forms should be requested from one of the following:

1) Montreal Diocesan Theological College,
   3473 University Street, Montreal, Quebec, H3A 2A8
2) The Presbyterian College,
   3495 University Street, Montreal, Quebec, H3A 2A8
3) United Theological College,
   3521 University Street, Montreal, Quebec, H3A 2A8.

Applicants who seek an M.Div. degree but do not wish to be associated with one of the Theological Colleges should indicate this on their B.Th. application form.

Prospective students should contact the Chair of the B.Th. Committee to discuss their qualifications, expectations and objectives.

4. Bachelor of Theology (B.Th.)

The Bachelor of Theology (B.Th.) program is meant mainly for those who intend to qualify for the ordained ministry.

The main goals of the program are:

1) to offer the academic disciplines of theology within a university setting.
2) to contribute to preparation for ministry in the contemporary world by giving special attention to:
   a) the Canadian and North American contexts;
   b) the Quebec contexts;
   c) religious pluralism.

Though most B.Th. students are ordination candidates who are sponsored by one of the three affiliated Theological Colleges, some students pursue the degree for purposes other than ordination.

4.1 Ats Accreditation

The B.Th. program and the combined B.Th./M.Div. program offered with the colleges are fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the U.S. and Canada.

4.2 Admission Requirements

Applicants will normally be required to give satisfactory evidence of one of the following:

a) For the 90-credit (first degree) program: the Diploma of Collegial Studies (D.C.S.) of a Quebec CEGEP. A minimum average of 75% is required for admission.

b) For the 60-credit (second degree) program: Bachelor's degree in Arts, Science, Engineering, Commerce, Education, Music, etc., whether or not it contains courses in religion or theology. Those who have obtained a minimum CGPA of 2.7 in such a degree will be considered for admission into the two-year (60-credit) program.

MATURE STUDENT ADMISSIONS POLICY

Residents of Canada who will be 27 years of age or older by September 1 of the year that they seek admission (for admission to the Fall Term) or January 1 (for admission to the Winter Term of said year), and who lack the academic background normally required for entrance into the B.Th. program, may apply for entrance as Mature Students. If accepted, such students are enrolled in a qualifying year of designated Religious Studies and Arts courses (assigned by the Chair of the B.Th. Committee) before being considered for the 90-credit B.Th. program. A minimum CGPA of 2.5 (with no grade less than 60%) is required for advancement into the 90-credit B.Th. program. Those who achieve a GPA of at least 3.0 (with no grade less than 65%) during their first full term of the qualifying year may, upon approval of the B.Th. Committee, be advanced to the 90-credit B.Th. retroactively.

4.3 Application and Registration

Application forms may be obtained from the Faculty of Religious Studies.

Applicants for the B.Th. program should submit to the Chair of the B.Th. Committee, an application with supporting documents as early as possible and not later than August 1 for fall admission, or November 1 for January admission. Supporting documents are:

1) Application fee;
2) Official transcripts of previous academic work;
3) Two letters of reference, at least one of which should be from an instructor in an academic institution previously attended.

4.4 Admission Appeals Procedures

If an unsuccessful applicant, or a Faculty of Religious Studies Council member acting on behalf of the applicant, believes that not all factors having a bearing on the application have been fully considered, he/she has the right to request that the B.Th. Admissions and Awards Committee review the application.

If the findings of the review procedure uphold the initial decision of the B.Th. Admissions and Awards Committee, the applicant has the right to appeal in writing to the Dean. The Dean shall put the appeal before the B.Th. Appeals Committee, which shall consist of three full-time members of the Faculty of Religious Studies Council who are not at the same time members of the B.Th. Admissions and Awards Committee.

The decision of the B.Th. Appeals Committee may be appealed to the Vice-Principal (Academic).

4.5 Graduation Requirements

a) The B.Th. is a 90-credit program.
b) The minimum residency requirement is 60 credits.
c) For students entering the 90-credit B.Th. program not more than 30 credits are eligible for transfer from another degree program.
d) Qualification for the degree shall include satisfactory standing (a grade of C or better) in all required courses and the complementary courses specified in year three, and the accumulation of sufficient acceptable credits to make a total of 90 credits.

e) Normally the program credits must be earned within five years from the date of entrance.

4.6 Course Selection

Candidates for the ministry from the three Theological Colleges associated with the Faculty must select their courses in consultation with their denominational advisers and with the Chair of the B.Th. Committee.

Those seeking the degree who are not proceeding towards ministry or are not sponsored by one of the three denominational colleges associated with the Faculty will clear their course selections with the Chair of the B.Th. Committee.

In all cases this consultation should take place before registration.

4.7 Academic Standing and Course Loads

SATISFACTORY STANDING

Students enter the University in satisfactory standing and remain in this standing unless their GPA/CGPA for any year drops below 2.0. The normal course load in any academic session is five courses per term (15 credits per term). A student with a high GPA (at least 3.0) may take more than the normal five courses per term.

PROBATIONARY STANDING

A student is placed in probationary standing if the GPA/CGPA falls between 1.5 and 1.99. Probationary students may take a maximum of 12 credits per term, and must raise their CGPA to 2.0 within one academic session. Those who fail to do so will be placed in unsatisfactory standing.

A student in probationary standing may return to satisfactory standing at the end of the next academic session by obtaining either a GPA of at least 2.5 or both a GPA and a CGPA of 2.0 or greater unless the student was admitted on probationary standing. A student admitted on probationary standing must obtain a GPA of 2.5.

Students in probationary standing who obtain a GPA between 1.5 and 1.99 remain in probationary standing if they also have a CGPA of 2.0 or greater.

A student in probationary standing who fails to achieve the levels of performance specified above will be placed in unsatisfactory standing.

UNSATISFACTORY STANDING

A GPA of less than 1.5 places a student in unsatisfactory standing.

A student in unsatisfactory standing will have to withdraw, or seek readmission as a probationary student with special permission from the B.Th. Committee and the Dean. A student who is readmitted on probationary standing may have additional restrictions or conditions to meet over and above those required of students referred to above under "Probationary Standing".

A student in unsatisfactory standing for the second time must withdraw permanently.

INCOMPLETE STANDING

A student whose record in any year shows a mark of K, K*, L, L*, or & will have no GPA or CGPA calculated for that year, and the record will show "Standing Incomplete". After completing the appropriate course requirements the GPA and CGPA will be calculated and the student's standing determined as described above.

Students whose standing is still "incomplete" at the time of registration for the next academic year must obtain a Letter of Permission to Register from the Chair of the B.Th. Committee.

4.8 Academic Achievement

Several designations are used to acknowledge the superior academic achievement of in-course and graduating students. These designations are awarded at the discretion of Faculty:

a) Distinction: to designate graduating students, not in Honours, who have completed a minimum of 60 credits at McGill and achieved a CGPA of 3.30 - 3.49.

b) Great Distinction: to designate graduating students, not in Honours, who have completed a minimum of 60 credits at McGill and achieved a CGPA of 3.5 or better.

c) Honours: to designate graduating students who have completed a minimum of 60 credits at McGill and have fulfilled the honours course requirements with a CGPA of 3.2, or 3.5 for First Class Honours.

d) Dean's Honour List: to designate graduating students with a CGPA of 3.5 or better. This designation applies in addition to those described in b) and c) above; except that it may not normally be awarded to more than 10% of the graduating class.

e) Dean's Honour List: to designate in-course students who have completed a minimum of 27 credits during regular session (14 credits for those registered for one term) and have attained a GPA placing them in the top 5-10% of their class.

EVALUATION

Competence in a course may be determined by examinations and/or essays, or by other means chosen by the instructor and approved by the Dean.

4.9 B.Th. Program

Unless otherwise authorized by the B.Th. Committee, the structure of the B.Th. program is as given below.

Students entering the B.Th. as a first degree program take 90 credits, beginning with the following courses:

Year 1 - Required Courses (12 credits)
