34.2 Programs Offered

M.A., M.Sc and Ph.D.

McGill Northern Research Stations
The McGill Subarctic Research Station is located at Schefferville, in the centre of Québec-Labrador. Facilities exist for research in most areas of physical and some areas of human geography in the subarctic.

McGill University also operates a field station at Expedition Fiord on Axel Heiberg in the High Arctic. Facilities are limited to a small lab and dorm building and cookhouse. Research activities focus on the glacial and geological. For additional information on these stations, contact the Scientific Director, Wayne Pollard, Department of Geography.

Centre for Climate and Global Change Research
The Department of Geography, with the McGill Departments of Atmospheric and Oceanic Sciences, Economics, Natural Resource Science; and several departments from the Université du Québec à Montréal and Université de Montréal developed a collaborative research centre that examines climate and global change. Through this Centre there are graduate opportunities.

For more information contact Professor Nigel Roulet, Director, Centre for Climate and Global Change, McGill University.

34.3 Admission Requirements

M.A. and M.Sc. Degrees
Attention is directed to the Faculty of Graduate Studies admission regulations outlined in the General Information and Faculty Regulations section headed "Admission".

Applicants not satisfying these conditions, but with primary undergraduate specialization in a cognate field, may register for the M.A. or M.Sc. degree in Geography in certain circumstances. In general, they, and others who have deficiencies in their preparation but are otherwise judged to be acceptable, will be required to register for a qualifying program or to undertake additional courses.

Ph.D. Degree
Students who have attained high standing in the Master's degree in Geography may be permitted to proceed to the Ph.D. in two further years.

On rare occasions, a student may be allowed to register for the Ph.D. degree without having first taken the Master’s degree. They, and others who have deficiencies in their preparation but are otherwise acceptable, will be required to register for a year of coursework and/or be required to take extra courses. The normal duration of a program, including field work where required, is three years.

Normally, the Department will restrict admission to the Ph.D. program to students prepared to work in one of the fields of human or physical geography in which specialized supervision is offered. These, which cover a wide range of systematic areas, are listed in documents available from the Department.

34.4 Application Procedures
Applications will be considered upon receipt of:
1. application form;
2. transcripts;
3. two letters of reference;
4. $60 application fee;
5. statement of proposed research.
Deadline for applications March 1.

34.5 Program Requirements

M.A. and M.Sc. Degrees (48 credits each)
Candidates must:
1. pass the equivalent of four graduate courses (12 credits), selected according to guidelines of the Department. Senior undergraduate courses in other departments may be substituted for some of this requirement with the permission of the Department of Geography;
2. pass courses 183-631D,N and 183-698D,N (12 credits), which deal with the preparation of the thesis proposal;
3. attend such additional courses as the Chair and the student’s thesis supervisor think fit; and,
4. submit a thesis 183-699 (24 credits) in an appropriate area of geographical inquiry.

Ph.D. Degree
Candidates must:
1. attend a minimum of two graduate courses (6 credits) and such additional courses as the Chair and the student’s supervisory committee think fit, and comply with a language requirement if this is recommended by that committee;
2. pass course 183-631D,N which deals with the preparation of the thesis proposal;
3. pass a comprehensive examination (Geography 183-700D, 701D, 702D) the form of which is detailed in a document available from the Department; and,
4. submit a thesis based on original research in an appropriate area of geographical inquiry.
34.6 Courses and Seminars for Advanced Undergraduates and Graduates

The course credit weight is given in parentheses (#) after the course title.

Contact the Graduate Affairs Office, Department of Geography, in late August for details of course contents and for term in which each course will be offered.

183-500B GEOGRAPHY OF REGIONAL IDENTITY. (3) (3 hours) (Restriction: Graduate students and final year undergraduates and/or those who have taken 183-408A.) The response of diverse regional groups in Europe to the centripetal tendencies of national institutions. The course draws upon examples from a variety of European regions. Contemporary regional issues will be contextualised within a spatial framework of historical geography.

Professor Armstrong

183-502A GEOGRAPHY OF NORTHERN DEVELOPMENT. (3) Analysis of the evolution of developmental policies and their spatial implications in circumpolar areas with an emphasis on the application of geographical concepts. Special attention is given to indigenous peoples and new immigrant populations in northern North America.

Professor Wenzel

183-504A INDUSTRIAL RESTRUCTURING – THE GEOGRAPHIC IMPLICATIONS. (3) (Prerequisites: 183-311B or permission of instructor.) The objective of this seminar course is to develop an understanding of the geographical consequences of a variety of new forms of economic and social organization that are emerging in the North American and Western European settings. Key themes: technological and managerial change, changing labour processes, industrial re-location.

Staff

183-505B GLOBAL BIOGEOCHEMISTRY. (3) (2 hours and research. Prerequisite: 183-305 or 183-322, and permission of instructor.) An examination of the storage, transfers and cycling of major elements and substances, with an emphasis on the global scale and the linkages between the atmosphere, hydrosphere, lithosphere and biosphere.

Professors Moore and Roulet

183-506B PERSPECTIVES ON GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION SYSTEMS. (3) (Prerequisites: 183-311B or permission of instructor.) An examination of a range of applications in automated processing of spatial data. The application of information systems such as GRASS and digital image processing routines to solve geographical problems in both physical and human geography.

Professor Lewis

183-510B HUMID TROPICAL ENVIRONMENTS. (3) (Prerequisites: 183-203A and 183-302B, or permission of instructor.) Analysis of biotic resources, human subsistence, and economic development in the humid tropical rain forests and savannas. Topics include traditional livelihood practices (e.g., shifting cultivation, agroforestry, forest extraction), commercial activities (e.g., livestock, plantations, development projects), human impacts, rain forest conservation, and prospects for sustainable development.

Professor Coomes

183-511B BEHAVIOURAL GEOGRAPHY. (3) The development of behavioural approaches in geography. A survey of methods and findings in the area of environmental and spatial cognition, preference and choice behaviour. Models of disaggregate and aggregate travel demand.

Professor Ewing

183-522A ADVANCED ENVIRONMENTAL HYDROLOGY. (3) (3 hours) (Prerequisite: 183-322, or permission of instructor) Surface and shallow ground water determine the availability of moisture and many chemical elements at the earth’s surface. This course discusses the link between surface water and ground water flow systems and the role this link plays in stream flow production and biogeochemical cycling.

Professor Roulet

183-523B ADVANCED CLIMATOLOGY. (3) (3 hours) (Prerequisite: a previous course in climatology or meteorology, and written permission of the instructor.)

Professor Pollard

183-535A INTERPRETATION METHODS: AIR PHOTOS AND IMAGES. (3)

183-536B PERIGLACIAL AND PERMAFROST ENVIRONMENTS. (3) An advanced course concerned with the unique geomorphic aspects of periglacial and permafrost environments. The focus will be on geomorphic processes in cold climates, the impact of human activity on permafrost landscapes and potential impacts of climatic change.

183-537B TOPICS IN FLUVIAL GEOMORPHOLOGY. (3)

183-550B QUATERNARY PALEOCOLOGY. (1) An examination of landscape and ecosystem response to climatic changes; addressing persistent problems in Pleistocene and Holocene paleoecology: episodes of temporary warming and cooling, locations of glacial refugia and sea level change. Principles and methods of Quaternary paleoecological and paleoclimatological reconstruction.

Professor Chmura

183-602A,B URBAN GEOGRAPHY: SELECTED TOPICS. (3) Social and historical aspects of the urban environment.

Staff

183-604A,B ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY: SELECTED TOPICS. (3)

183-606A GEOGRAPHY AND DEVELOPMENT: SELECTED TOPICS. (3) Historical roots of uneven development in metropolitan and peripheral societies.

Staff

183-608A,B CULTURAL GEOGRAPHY: SELECTED TOPICS. (3) Cultural ecology with particular reference to changing peasant/ plantation relations; space needs of native peoples in relation to land claims.

Staff

183-609A,B HUMAN GEOGRAPHY. (3) Analysis of social and theoretical problems in human geography.

Staff

183-613A,B ADVANCED BIOGEOGRAPHY. (3)

183-623A,B SEMINAR ON REGIONAL RESEARCH: A SELECTED REGION. (3)

183-625A,B SPECIAL TOPICS IN HUMAN GEOGRAPHY. (3) An examination of recent advances in human geography.

Staff

183-626A,B SPECIAL TOPICS IN PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY. (3) An examination of recent advances in physical geography.

Staff

183-631D,N METHODS OF GEOGRAPHICAL RESEARCH. (6) General research seminar in human and physical geography.

Staff

183-633A,B REMOTE SENSING. (3)

183-634A QUANTITATIVE METHODS IN GEOGRAPHY. (3)

Staff

183-699D THESIS RESEARCH. (24) Independent research under the supervision of a research director.

35.1 Staff

Professors
P.M. Daly; B.A.(Brst.), Ph.D.(Zur.)
A. Hsia; Ph.D(F.U.Berlin)
J. Schmidt; Ph.D.(Zur.)
35.2 Programs Offered

M.A. (thesis or non-thesis) and Ph.D. degrees in German.

Ph.D. Language Tests

Ph.D. candidates in other disciplines who are required to pass a reading test in German may prepare themselves by taking 129-200A, B or 129-202D, (or 129-203D/129-004D if offered).

35.3 Admission Requirements

Masters

In order to be admitted to the M.A. program in German, candidates must have a B.A. degree with Honours in German from McGill University, or hold an equivalent degree from another college or university of recognized standing, or have completed a course of studies of equivalent value at such an institution.

Candidates who have a B.A. with Joint Honours in German with another discipline from McGill University or another university of recognized standing will also be admitted if they have taken two courses in the Age of Goethe and one course each in a pre-Goethe period, in the 19th and in the 20th century. Those who have a Major in German may be admitted on individual merits. They may also be able to enter the program as qualifying students for the purpose of completing these preliminary studies.

In order to pursue graduate studies in German, all candidates must have considerable fluency in German, as all courses are given in German.

Graduate students holding a Language Instructorship or who are otherwise employed will normally not be allowed to take more than four courses a year. Students may be required to attend an approved course in English if their knowledge of that language is judged inadequate. All graduate students are expected to attend the staff-student colloquium.

Ph.D.

M.A. or equivalent.

35.4 Application Procedures

1. Application form
2. Official transcripts
3. Two letters of reference
4. $60 application fee
5. Test results (GRE, TOEFL)
6. Writing sample

All information is to be submitted directly to the Graduate Secretary in the Department of German Studies.

Deadline: rolling admission.

35.5 Program Requirements

M.A. with thesis

Requirements:

Coursework – 6 three-credit courses (18 credits)
Thesis – Thesis Research Courses I-X (30 credits)
129-690 - 129-699

Originality of research is not required for the thesis, but the student must show a critical understanding of the subject as demonstrated by the logical development of an argument which is supported by adequate documentation. Students are normally permitted to take a maximum of 3 credits in another department with the approval of the Graduate Studies Committee.

Ph.D.

Requirements:

Coursework – 8 three-credit courses (24 credits)
Comprehensive examination (oral and written)
French Language examination or Latin (if specializing in German Literature before 1600)
Thesis
Thesis Defence

Students may take up to 6 credits in another department with the approval of the Graduate Studies Committee.

As a rule, it will take a candidate at least three years after the M.A. degree to complete the requirements for the Ph.D. degree. Students who have not spent an appreciable length of time in a German-speaking country are advised to spend one year at a university in such a country, for which credit may be given in the above program.

35.6 Courses

Courses are normally given in the form of seminars. Each year, the Department publishes a list of those offerings which will be available in the ensuing session. These lists are available from the Departmental Secretary or from the Graduate Faculty office, normally in the month of May. Each year the Department offers courses in some of the following areas.

The course credit weight is given in parentheses (#) after the course title.

Courses to be offered in 1999-2000

129-630B GERMAN CLASSICISM I. (3)

Assistant Professor
D. Cohn; B.A.(Calif. at Berkeley), A.M.(Mich.), Ph.D.(Brown)

36.2 Programs Offered

M.A. and Ph.D. in Hispanic Studies.

The Department of Hispanic Studies is committed to the disciplined study of all aspects of the literature, intellectual history and culture of Spain and Latin America, as well as the Spanish and Portuguese languages. Research interests focus on both the cluster of Golden Age, Viceregal America and Enlightenment studies, as well as specializations in contemporary Spain and Hispanic America.

A limited number of language instructorships are available each year and those interested should apply directly to the Chair of the Department.

36.3 Admission Requirements

M.A. Degree (thesis or non-thesis)

In order to be admitted to graduate work in Hispanic Studies, candidates must fulfill the following prerequisites:

a) Candidates must possess a B.A. degree with Honours or, in certain cases, Joint Honours in Hispanic Studies from McGill University, or an equivalent degree from another college or university of recognized standing.

b) Candidates who do not possess the above prerequisites may, with special permission, enter the Department as Qualifying students for the purpose of completing these preliminary studies. They may have to take, among other courses, 144-550, Comprehensive Examination.

Students may be required to attend an approved course in English or French if their knowledge of either language is deemed inadequate.
Prospective candidates may certainly express their preference but should note that the Graduate Committee of the Department of Hispanic Studies reserves the right to determine which of the two options (thesis/non-thesis) students admitted to the M.A. program will be permitted to pursue and/or continue to completion.

Ph.D. Degree

Applicants must normally possess an M.A. in Hispanic Studies, or in a related discipline, from a university of recognized standing. These applicants will be admitted to Ph.D.2 and follow the program requirements listed below. Exceptionally qualified candidates may apply to enter into Ph.D.1 directly from the B.A. Honours, and will be required to complete an additional 6 three-credit courses above those listed below.

Applicants must demonstrate proficiency in Spanish, and when appropriate in Portuguese, plus a working knowledge of either French or English.

Applicants should submit samples of research papers that they have completed during the course of their previous studies. Submission of the results of the Graduate Record Examination is also encouraged.

36.4 Application Procedures

Applications will be considered upon receipt of:

1. duly completed application form;
2. all transcripts;
3. letters of reference;
4. $60 application fee;
5. TOEFL scores where applicable;
6. a sample of recent written work.

All information should be submitted directly to the Chair of the Graduate Program.

Deadlines

For admission in the Fall Term: March 15.
For admission in the Winter Term: November 1.

36.5 Program Requirements

The Graduate Committee of the Department of Hispanic Studies reserves the right to determine which of the two options (thesis/non-thesis) students admitted to the M.A. will be permitted to pursue and/or continue to completion. All general regulations of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research shall apply regarding the MA. degree.

M.A. Degree with thesis (48 credits)

Requirements:

- Coursework – 6 three-credit courses (18 credits)
- Research – 2 three-credit courses in Thesis Preparation (144-695/144-696) (6 credits)
- Thesis – 144-697D (24 credits)

Students pursuing the M.A. with thesis are expected to complete their degree requirements within 18 months. Ideally, students admitted to this option will pursue their studies on a full-time basis. The combination of three courses and one Thesis Preparation course will permit these students the 12 credits per term average that is required for most fellowships.

M.A. Degree without thesis (48 credits)

Requirements:

- Coursework – 8 three-credit courses (24 credits)
- Research – 2 three-credit courses in Hispanic Bibliography (144-603/144-604) (6 credits)
- Two 2 Guided Research Projects – 18 credits

All candidates pursuing the M.A. without thesis must complete the Guided Research Project in Medieval and Golden Age Literature (including Colonial Spanish America) (144-615A/B). Candidates choosing to focus their research on the literature of Spain will take the Guided Research Project in Modern and Contemporary Spanish Literature (144-616B). Those wishing to specialize in the literature of Spanish America will take the Guided Research Project in Modern and Contemporary Spanish-American Literature (144-617B).

At the conclusion of each Research Project, students will be required to produce an extended essay, or series of essays, during a 48-hour period with full access to critical material. Each of these essays will focus upon themes and issues central to the particular field of research and will be examined by at least two faculty members. Normally, the examinations for each of these projects will be offered only once during the academic year and always in the same rotation: "Medieval and Golden Age Literature" in December, and both "Modern and Contemporary Spanish Literature" and "Modern and Contemporary Spanish-American Literature" in April.

All candidates pursuing the M.A. without thesis, both full- and part-time, are expected to complete their degree requirements within 18 months, and must successfully complete at least one of their Guided Research projects during the first 12 months. It is expected that most students will require 3 semesters to complete their degrees. In accordance with the regulations established by the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research, students in non-thesis programs who do not take at least 12 credits per term are considered to proceed toward their degree on a part-time basis.

Ph.D. Degree Requirements

1. Six 3-credit courses.
2. Proficiency in Spanish, and when appropriate in Portuguese, as well as a functional ability in French and English. A reading knowledge of a fourth language will be determined according to the needs of the candidate’s research program.
3. Comprehensive examinations, oral and written.
4. Doctoral dissertation on an appropriate area of original research.

All courses, comprehensive examinations and language requirements will normally be completed before the dissertation topic is formally approved. A dissertation proposal should be submitted to the Graduate Committee of the Department of Hispanic Studies for approval no later than the end of the second year of full-time doctoral studies.

All general regulations of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research regarding the Ph.D. degree shall apply.

Required Academic Activities: All candidates preparing their dissertation are required to give an annual formal presentation of their research to the Department, normally beginning in the third year of full-time doctoral studies.

36.6 Courses

The course credit weight is given in parentheses (#) after the course title.

144-501A HISTORY OF THE SPANISH LANGUAGE. (3) (Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor.) The development of Spanish from its beginnings to the Modern Period, including usage in Spanish America and Judeo-Spanish.

144-505-507B SEMINAR IN HISPANIC STUDIES. (3) A team-taught seminar examining major issues in Hispanic letters that transcend national literatures and historical periods. Although the specific topics will vary, each will address broad questions of a diachronic nature, thereby permitting an understanding of literary schools and movements, genres or ideologies present throughout the Hispanic world.

144-550A,B,C COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATION. (6) For qualifying students. Oral examination following the reading of a number of books as assigned by the Department.

144-603A,B,C HISPANIC BIBLIOGRAPHY, 1. (3)

144-604A,B,C HISPANIC BIBLIOGRAPHY, 2. (3)

144-605-609A,B PROBLEMS OF LITERARY THEORY AND CRITICISM. (3)

144-610-614A,B SPANISH LINGUISTICS AND PHILOLOGY. (3)
144-615A/B Medieval and Golden Age Literature. (9) An investigation of the principal themes and critical issues in medieval and Golden-Age Spanish literature. Attention will also focus on a comparison with similar problems in colonial Spanish-American literature. Project.

144-620-624A,B Spanish Literature of the Middle Ages. (3)

144-625-629A,B Spanish Theatre of the Golden Age. (3)

144-630-634A,B Spanish Poetry of the Golden Age. (3)

144-635-639A,B Spanish Prose of the Golden Age. (3)

144-640-644A,B Cervantes. (3)

144-645-649A,B Spanish Neoclassicism and Romanticism. (3)

144-650-654A,B Spanish Realism and Naturalism. (3)

144-655-659A,B Spanish Literature from 1898 to 1936. (3)

144-660-664A,B Spanish Literature since the Civil War. (3)

Ph.D. in History
Normally, M.A. in History.

Ph.D. in History of Medicine
Normally, M.A. in History of Medicine.

37.4 Application Procedures
Applications will be considered upon receipt of:
1. application form
2. transcripts (2 official copies)
3. letters of reference (2)
4. $60 application fee
5. test results (TOEFL)
6. writing sample
7. short essay

Completed applications and supporting material must be submitted directly to the Graduate Coordinator.

Deadline: February 1 for admission in September. Note: There are no January admissions.

37.5 Program Requirements

M.A. Degree in History
(45 credits to be completed in one year - 3 semesters)
Successful completion of 18 credits of graduate course work as follows: 6 credits Historical Theory and Methods (101-678A and 101-679A); 12 credits from seminar offerings (6 credits may be tutorials).
Completion of a Research paper (27 credits) for which the topic will emerge from the course work. Work on this paper will begin during the first semester and should normally be completed during the following summer semester. (Full regulations may be obtained from the Department.)

M.A. Degree in History of Medicine
(48 credits normally completed in two years)
The program requires the completion of 48 credits, composed of three full-year graduate seminars, plus a major research paper. Consult the Department of Social Studies of Medicine section for program details.

Ph.D. Degree in History
Examination Requirements: Candidates are required to sit an oral comprehensive examination by May at the end of the 2nd term of the Ph.D. II year. The examination consists of:
101-702D Comprehensive Examination in Major Field.
101-703D Comprehensive Examination in First Minor Field.
101-704D Comprehensive Examination in Second Minor Field.
Candidates must consult with their Director of Studies at the beginning of their Ph.D. work in order to determine their fields.

Thesis: With the completion of the oral comprehensive examination, candidates may proceed with their doctoral dissertation.

Language Requirements: Ph.D. Candidates must offer one foreign language for examination purposes and they must also demonstrate a reading knowledge of such other languages as are required for research purposes in their major field. The Department expects that candidates will have successfully demonstrated competence in the one required language by the end of their Ph.D. 3 year.

Ph.D. Degree in History of Medicine
Candidates will prepare the major field for the Comprehensive Examination with a member of the Department Social Studies of Medicine and the two minor fields with members of the Department of History. The thesis will normally be directed by the director of the major field. In all other respects, the same rules will apply to candidates in this area as apply to other Ph.D. students in History.

39.2 Programs Offered

Courses of study and research are offered leading to the degrees of M.A. and Ph.D. in Islamic Studies, and a Graduate Diploma in Islamic Studies.

The Institute of Islamic Studies is concerned with the disciplined study of Islamic civilization throughout the scope of its history and geographical spread. It gives attention to the origins of Islam, to the rise of the civilization in which Islamic faith was the vivifying factor, to the forces which shaped the civilization and the changes it has undergone. It is also concerned with the contemporary dynamics of the Islamic world as Muslims seek to relate their heritage from the past to the present. Courses, seminars and possibilities for research are offered in Islamic languages, in Islamic history, in the social institutions of the Islamic world, in Islamic thought, and in modern developments in various regions of the Islamic world.

The Islamic Studies Library is especially strong in its reference materials and periodical holdings for the Islamic regions. The collection, one of the largest in North America, contains approximately 100,000 volumes in the principal European languages as well as in Arabic, Persian, Turkish, Urdu and other Islamic languages.

39.3 Admission Requirements

Applicants must have a degree (B.A. or M.A.) from a recognized university, with a minimum Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) of 3.0 out of 4 (or equivalent), or a Grade Point Average (GPA) of 3.2 out of 4 in the last two years of full-time studies, according to Canadian standards. The degree should be in the Humanities or Social Sciences, preferably in Islamic or Middle Eastern Studies.

Applicants whose first language is not English and who have not studied in an institution where English is the language of instruction, must submit acceptable evidence of competence in English before their application for admission can be considered. The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) with a minimum score of 550 OR an IELTS score of at least 6.5 overall band are acceptable at McGill University. Only TOEFL or IELTS scores... will be accepted. No other test scores will be considered. (GRE scores are not required.)

39.4 Application Procedures
Applications will be considered upon receipt of:
1. McGill University application form.
2. Two originals of all official university transcripts (B.A. and/or M.A. if applicable).
3. Two letters of recommendation for M.A. applications or three letters of recommendation for Ph.D. applications.
4. Application fee of $60.00 (money order or certified cheque in Canadian funds).
5. TOEFL or IELTS test results.
6. Proof of Citizenship (certified photocopy of passport, birth certificate or equivalent).
7. Institute of Islamic Studies Academic Background form.

All application documents must be submitted directly to the Chair, Admissions Committee, Institute of Islamic Studies before March 1st.

39.5 Program Requirements

M.A. Degree (51 credit program)
Students registered in the M.A. program must fulfill the following criteria in order to receive their Master’s degree:

a) residence requirement (see Guidelines of Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research);
b) course work: 27 credits which must include at least one 700-level seminar course offered by the Institute, and Lower Intermediate Arabic 397-552D (as the Language Requirement);
c) Research Materials 397-603A (Pass - not for credit);
d) Thesis courses (24 credits in all): 397-697 (6 credits), 397-698 (6 credits) and 397-699 (12 credits).

Ph.D. Degree
The Ph.D. program requirements are:

a) five 6-credit courses (or equivalent) for a total of 30 credits beyond the M.A. level, including two 700-level seminars offered by the Institute;
b) Higher Intermediate Arabic (397-623D), or equivalent;
c) knowledge of an Islamic language, other than Arabic, at the second year level;
d) knowledge of a European language at the second year level (i.e., French, German, Russian, Spanish, Dutch, Italian);
e) comprehensive examinations in four specified fields (course 397-701);
f) a dissertation judged to contain original research. Upon approval of the dissertation, “pass” must be received at the final oral examination.

Graduate Diploma in Islamic Studies
With a B.A. in Islamic Studies (or its equivalent), applicants may be admitted to this non-degree program, which requires the completion of 30 credits of course work in one academic year. Candidates will choose a minimum of 18 credits from graduate courses in Islamic Studies and a maximum of 12 credits from graduate courses in related fields. If awarded a diploma with high standing, they may be allowed to proceed to a higher degree in Islamic Studies.

41.2 Programs Offered

M.A. in Jewish Studies. An ad hoc Ph.D. in Jewish Studies can be arranged, please contact the Department.

The Department of Jewish Studies accepts graduate students in two specific, clearly defined areas: the History of Jewish Interpretation of the Bible and East European Jewish Studies. While these are broadly construed to accommodate the range of the Department’s research interests, students whose interests do not relate to either of these fields are encouraged to consider other options. A generalist M.A. in Jewish Studies is not offered.

41.3 Admission Requirements

All applicants to the graduate program must hold an Honors B.A. in Jewish Studies or the equivalent. Preferably, this degree will include the general background necessary to acquaint the undergraduate with the range of Jewish Studies as well as appropriate concentration in one or more areas integral to the proposed focus of graduate study.

In addition, students pursing programs in the History of Jewish Interpretation of the Bible must demonstrate fluency in Hebrew,
The application deadline is February 1 for fall admissions.

42.3 Admission Requirements

General
The Faculty of Law has a Graduate Admissions Committee and a Graduate Studies Committee that make recommendations regarding admission to the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research. Final admissions decisions are taken by the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research, in the months of February, March, and April.

For information and application forms please write to the Coordinator, Graduate Studies in Law, McGill University at the above address.

All non-Canadian applicants whose mother tongue is neither English nor French must take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) and score at least 575 or 233 (computer-based test). All non-Canadian applicants whose mother tongue is French must also take the TOEFL, with a required standard of 550 or 213 (computer-based test). No other language tests are acceptable. The TOEFL bulletin, which includes a registration form, is available in many locations, including American embassies and consulates or through TOEFL, Box 899, Princeton N.J. 08540, USA. There may be a lengthy delay for registration, and the communication of results takes approximately 40 days. The test must be taken sufficiently early for results to reach McGill no later than April 1 of the year of admission. (Note: Prospective students cannot register – and under no conditions should come to Canada – unless the minimum TOEFL score has been achieved.)

Language Requirement

All graduate students must have very good knowledge of English. The ability to speak or read French is an asset, but generally not a requirement. (In some areas, particularly the study of the private law in the civil tradition or comparative private law, a reading knowledge of French is essential.)

English is the predominant language at McGill, but some law courses are given in French and others are taught bilingually (in English and French). Francophone students may intervene in French, and many courses involve readings in French. Thus, a student who is not able to read French will have his or her choices constrained, though in many areas they work around this limitation with little disadvantage. Applicants should indicate their knowledge of French on the admissions questionnaire. If French is essential to the area of study the Faculty will notify the applicant.

Graduate Certificate Programs

The requirements for admission to the Graduate Certificate programs are essentially the same as for the Master's programs, except that greater weight is placed on professional experience.

Candidates desiring a Graduate Certificate in Air and Space Law who do not hold a law degree may be admitted if they have earned an undergraduate university degree in another discipline and possess sufficient professional experience to compensate for the lack of a law degree (as determined by the Graduate Admissions Committee).

Master’s Degrees

Candidates for admission to the LL.M. program must hold the degree of B.C.L. or LL.B. with at least second class honours, from McGill University, or its equivalent from another recognized university. This standing does not guarantee admission, however. The Graduate Admissions Committee weighs the entire file, including the applicant's references and the quality of the research proposal. Furthermore, the Committee must consider the availability of a supervisor. If a supervisor is not available in the applicant's preferred field of study, the applicant may be refused admission or else offered admission pending a change of field of study. Except in rare cases, students are not formally assigned a supervisor at the admissions stage. During the first year of study, they are permitted to adjust their thesis topics and choose a supervisor (subject to the approval of the Associate Dean).

Transfers from a Graduate Certificate Program to the LL.M. program are permitted for students who have achieved very good marks in their course work and who satisfy the other eligibility requirements. They may apply to the Graduate Admissions Committee for transfer and, if admitted, must waive receipt of the Graduate Certificate. (If a candidate has already received the Graduate Certificate, he or she may be accepted as a candidate for the Master's degree if he or she registers for three additional semesters and undertakes additional course work.)

LL.M. specialization in Bioethics: Requirements for admission to the Master's program in Bioethics from the base discipline Law, are the same as for admission to the LL.M.

For further information please contact the Chair, Master's Specialization in Bioethics, Biomedical Ethics Unit, 3690 Peel Street, Montreal, QC, H3A 1W9. Telephone: (514) 398-6980; Fax: (514) 398-8379; Email: Glass_K@falaw.lan.mcgill.ca.

The M.C.L. is not currently being offered.

D.C.L. Degree

Applicants demonstrating outstanding academic ability will be considered for admittance to the doctoral program. Candidates typically hold both an undergraduate degree and a law degree.

Admission to the DCL program occurs only when:
(a) the candidate has completed a graduate degree with thesis at McGill or at another university, and
(b) the Graduate Admissions Committee is satisfied that the quality of his or her previous research is sufficient to justify admission to a doctoral program.

The latter usually requires review of the completed Master's thesis.

42.4 Application Procedures

Application will be considered upon receipt of:
1. application form;
2. statement of academic program and brief resume;
3. official transcripts and proof of degree;
4. letters of reference on forms provided for that purpose (sent directly by the referee to the Graduate Program in Law);
5. $60 application fee;
6. official TOEFL score report.

All information is to be submitted to the Coordinator, Graduate Studies in Law, at the above address.

Deadline: February 1st in the year prior to the start of the academic year for which the candidate is applying.

LL.M. specialization in Bioethics

Applications are made initially through the Biomedical Ethics Unit in the Faculty of Medicine, which administers the program and teaches the core courses.

Applicants must be accepted first by Law and then by the Bioethics Graduate Studies Advisory Committee.

42.5 Program Requirements

Graduate Certificate in Comparative Law

The Graduate Certificate is awarded after at least one term of residence in the Faculty and upon completion of a minimum of 15 academic credits. At least nine of those credits must be earned through course work, with the balance earned through essays or the preparation of teaching or course materials. In every case, the program is structured to meet individual needs and must be approved by the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research).

Note: International students must register for at least 12 credits per semester in order to satisfy visa requirements.

Students who study at McGill under the terms of an international assistance project may, in some circumstances, be permitted to complete a practical internship for academic credit.
Graduate Certificate in Air and Space Law

The Graduate Certificate in Air and Space Law is a course work program with a limited research and writing requirement. It is particularly appropriate for students with a strong professional orientation who do not wish to write a thesis. The Graduate Certificate is awarded after at least one term of residence in the Faculty and upon completion of a minimum of 15 academic credits. Those credits must include the three air and space law courses obligatory for Master’s students (387-633, 387-636, and 387-637).

The required courses are offered in the fall, hence Graduate Certificate students must be in residence during at least one fall term. The balance of required credits can be obtained either through other IASL courses, Independent Study courses, or any other course in the University or other universities related to the area of concentration, subject to approval by the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research).

Graduate Certificate students generally remain in residence for both terms and take all air and space law courses.

Note: International students must register for at least 12 credits per semester in order to satisfy visa requirements.

MASTER’S DEGREES

The Master’s programs consist of a course work component (normally 18 credits) and a thesis of approximately 100 to 150 pages. Candidates must remain in residence for three semesters. The third semester, usually devoted to thesis research, may be taken in the summer of the first year, making it possible to complete residence requirements within one calendar year. If the thesis is not completed in this time, students must register for additional years as needed. All degree requirements must be completed within three years of the date of registration.

The thesis topic is normally determined in consultation with the supervisor toward the end of the first semester or early second semester and must be approved by the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research). The submitted thesis is evaluated by the candidate’s supervisor and an external examiner chosen by the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research. The thesis must show familiarity with previous work in the field and demonstrate the student’s capacity for solid, independent analysis and for organizing results.

Exceptionally, and upon the recommendation of the Graduate Admissions Committee of the Faculty of Law, candidates may register as half-time students and complete their prescribed course work in two academic years.

Institute of Air and Space Law

Master of Laws (LL.M.)

The student must take at least 18 credits of courses. Normally the student will take the following courses:

387-636 (3) Private International Air Law
387-633 (3) Public International Air Law
387-637 (3) Space Law and Institutions
387-632* (3) Comparative Air Law
387-613* (3) Government Regulation of Air Transport
387-638* (3) Air and Space Law Applications

On occasion, students will be permitted to substitute for Comparative Air Law, Government Regulation of Air Transport and/or Air and Space Law Applications other courses selected from a list of Faculty or Institute of Comparative Law courses or courses offered by another department of the University. Each student’s final choice of curriculum is subject to the approval of the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research).

Thesis Component – Required (27 credits)

387-690A,B,C (3) Master’s Thesis I
387-691A,B,C (3) Master’s Thesis II
387-692A,B,C (6) Master’s Thesis III
387-693A,B,C (12) Master’s Thesis IV
387-694A,B,C (3) Master’s Thesis V

The LL.M. student must present an acceptable thesis on a subject approved by the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research). Work on the Master’s thesis is divided into five courses, and is conducted under the close supervision of a member of Faculty. To be allowed to submit a thesis, a student must have obtained at least 65% (B-) in each of the courses taken.

Candidates for the Master’s degree must spend three terms of full-time study and research in residence at the Institute.

Institute of Comparative Law

Master of Civil Law (M.C.L.)

This program is not currently being offered.

Institute of Comparative Law

Master of Laws (LL.M.)

The Master’s program consists of both course requirements and a substantial thesis.

There is no uniform program of studies. Candidates follow a curriculum that, as far as possible, is fashioned to meet their particular needs as indicated by prior legal experience and aspirations. Candidates will normally take six courses, for a total of at least 18 credits, during the two terms of the academic year. All ICL graduate students must take either “Theoretical Approaches to Law” or “Legal Traditions”.

Apart from this requirement, there is no set curriculum. Courses are for the most part determined by the student, in consultation with the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research), with programs tailored to meet individual needs. Students who have a particularly strong academic record, who are already well-versed in the area they wish to study and who have a fully developed thesis proposal when they arrive at the Faculty may be authorized by the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research) to take a reduced course load. In such cases, the minimum of course credits would be 9, and the expectations for the sophistication of the Master’s thesis would be commensurately increased.

Candidates who complete all courses required of them with a grade of at least 65% (B-) may normally proceed to the submission of their Master’s thesis on a subject approved by the Director or the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research). In some cases, candidates may be required to undergo an oral examination before a jury appointed by the Director or the Associate Dean.

Thesis Research Writing and Supervision

The Master’s thesis is on the University credit system. For all students in the Institute of Comparative Law (ICL) an LL.M. thesis is worth 27 credits, divided over the following five thesis courses:

389-612A,B,C (3) Master’s Thesis I
389-613A,B,C (3) Master’s Thesis II
389-614A,B,C (3) Master’s Thesis III
389-615A,B,C (6) Master’s Thesis IV
389-616A,B,C (12) Master’s Thesis V

N.B. Exceptionally and upon the decision of the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research) ICL students may receive 30, 33 or 36 credits for a Master’s thesis. They must then also register for one or both of the following courses.

389-617A,B,C (3) Master’s Thesis VI
389-618A,B,C (6) Master’s Thesis VII

If a student so wishes with a view to completing the Master’s Programme in the minimum prescribed time of three semesters, Master’s Thesis I, II and III may be taken in the fall and winter semesters of the first year in residence (LL.M. or M.C.L.1), as long as the total number of credits in that semester does not exceed 18.

Also in semesters that a student devotes entirely to thesis research and writing, the maximum number of credits is 18. Therefore, the thesis courses must necessarily be taken over a minimum of two semesters. Where more semesters are needed, students may register for “additional sessions”, as long as they remain within the University time limits for the completion of Master’s theses.

Marks are given by the external and internal thesis examiners for the whole thesis and for all thesis courses together, and this upon the completion of the last thesis course (Master’s Thesis V). While work on the thesis is in progress, thesis courses on transcripts will be marked I.P. (in progress).

As part of Master’s Thesis I, a thesis candidate must provide a protocol to his or her supervisor setting out details as to the thesis topic, the deadlines for the completion of the various thesis courses and the schedule of meetings with the thesis supervisor. Modifications to the protocol must be made in writing and submitted to the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research). At the end of each semester for which a student is registered for thesis courses or is in “additional session”, a short progress report must be written, countersigned by the supervisor, and submitted to the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies and Research).

Course Selection
It should be noted that not all courses are offered in each year. Students wishing to pursue research topics outside of these particular fields are welcome to do so, subject to the availability of appropriate thesis supervisors.

The ICL has particular teaching and research strengths in the following course concentrations.

Legal Traditions and Legal Theory
This concentration combines two areas of strength: the co-existence of diverse legal traditions, particularly (but not exclusively) the civil and common law, and the awareness of the importance of theoretical approaches to law as a means of understanding both the internal dynamic of legal phenomena and their relationship to other social phenomena.

Courses offered within this concentration include:
- Aboriginal Peoples and the Law
- Advanced Jurisprudence
- Canadian Legal History
- Canon Law
- Comparative Modern Legal History
- Feminist Legal Theory
- Islamic Law
- Jurisprudence
- Legal Theory
- Linguistic and Literary Approaches to the Law
- Research Seminars
- Roman Law
- Social and Ethical Issues in Jewish Law
- Social Diversity and the Law
- Talmudic Law
- Tort Theory

International Business Law
The ICL pioneered the first graduate concentration in international business law in Canada. This field has practical significance in international business relations and also provides opportunities to apply experience derived from multiple legal systems to the development of multi-jurisdictional, "international” commercial rules.

Courses offered within this concentration include:
- Comparative Legal Institutions
- European Community Law I
- European Community Law II
- International Business Enterprises
- International Carriage of Goods by Sea
- International Development Law
- International and Domestic Documentary Sales
- International Maritime Conventions
- International Securities Markets
- International Taxation
- Law and Practice of International Trade
- Research Seminars
- Resolution of International Disputes

Human Rights and Cultural Diversity
Building on the Faculty’s strength in public law, this concentration promotes the comparative study of human rights law. It provides students with opportunities to reflect critically on the emergence and institutionalization of human rights norms in both domestic and international settings and to explore complexities arising from cultural diversity.

Courses offered within this concentration include:
- Aboriginal Peoples and the Law
- Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms
- Children and the Law
- Civil Liberties
- Comparative Constitutional Protection of Human Rights
- Comparative and International Protection of Minorities’ Rights
- Current Problems of the International Legal Order
- Discrimination and the Law
- International Law of Human Rights
- Research Seminars
- Social Diversity and Law

Regulation, Technology and Society
This concentration focuses on the comparative and inter-disciplinary study of legal regulation in areas of rapid technological change. It encourages critical reflection on notions of the public interest and its protection in areas as diverse as the bio-medical sciences, the environment, the growth of computer networks, and the commercial exploitation of space.

Courses offered within this concentration include:
- Administrative Process
- Communications Law
- Comparative Medical Law
- Computers and the Law
- Contemporary Private Law Problems I
- Entertainment Law
- Environment and the Law
- Government Control of Business
- Intellectual and Industrial Property
- International Environmental Law
- Land Use Planning
- Policies, Politics and the Legislative Process
- Research Seminars
- Science, Technology and the Law

LL.M. – Specialization in Bioethics: The curriculum is composed of required courses (for 6 credits) offered in the Biomedical Ethics Unit, bioethics courses (3 credit minimum) offered by the base faculty or department and any graduate courses required or accepted by a base faculty for the granting of a Master's degree, for a total of 18 to 21 credits. A minimum of 45 credits is required including the thesis. For further information regarding this program, please refer to the Bioethics section.

DOCTOR OF CIVIL LAW (D.C.L.) DEGREE
The Doctor of Civil Law is a research degree offered by both the ICL and the IASL, with identical requirements. Candidates who do not hold a McGill law degree may be required to take two or three courses designed to introduce them to the McGill professors and resources available in their field.

The degree will be awarded, at the earliest, after the completion of three years of residence in the Faculty. In the case of a candidate holding an LL.M. from McGill or an equivalent degree from another university, the residency requirement may be reduced to two years of study beyond the Master’s degree, with the approval of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research, upon recommendation of the Graduate Studies Committee of the Faculty of Law.

At any stage, a candidate may be required to pass an oral examination to test general knowledge in the field of research.

The principal basis for evaluation is a doctoral thesis of 350 to 450 pages. It must constitute a significant contribution to legal knowledge, evidencing in concept and execution the original work of the candidate. Its form must be suitable for publication. The thesis must be submitted within four years of completion of the residency requirement.
