This information bulletin is an initiative from Content and Collaboration Solutions and Teaching and Learning Services designed to inform you of upcoming events to enhance your teaching at McGill University.

FEATURED EVENT

Introduction to Course Design
- December 9 – December 13
- Would you like to design or redesign one of your courses and enhance your teaching skills? Work on a draft syllabus for your course with fellow faculty members and facilitators from Teaching and Learning Services to incorporate strategies that focus on enhancing student learning.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Mid-term arrangements for students registered at the OSD
- An urgent call for help to faculty members!
- Given the current work disruptions, the Office for Students with Disabilities is requesting help from Faculties and individual professors for mid-term exams. Wherever possible, mid-terms should be organized and hosted directly by professors. Please contact disabilities.students@mcgill.ca for further information or assistance.

Endnote Essentials Workshops
- October 19 - November 23
- Find out how to build your personal database of references using EndNote. Learn how to organize the references in groups, produce bibliographies, attach files to your references, insert bibliographic citations in your papers in your chosen style, and more. Register here.

Clickers (Student Response System) Focus Group
- October 19 or October 24
- Clickers have been used in classrooms at McGill for several years and we want your feedback about the current system to continue meeting your needs. What currently works well? What would you like to see changed? What are the things you would like to be able to do that you cannot do now? Register here.

Safer Spaces: Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity
- Thursday, October 20
- Want to understand the concepts, language, and issues of sexual and gender diversity? This interactive workshop provides an introduction to the topic within the context of the McGill community. Register here.

Teaching with myCourses WCT 702
- Tuesday, October 25
- At the end of this workshop, you will be able to: manage your course section, and communicate with your students both asynchronously (Mail, Calendar, Announcements, Discussions) and synchronously (Chat, Who's Online). Register here.
Thursday, November 8
This workshop is designed to help you prepare your course section in myCourses for your students. At the end of this workshop, you will be able to: set up your browser to access myCourses, customize the myCourses Home interface, build and customize your course section. Register here.

If We Build It: Can They Access? – Challenges for Biomedical Research (half-day conference)
Friday, November 4
Do you supervise students doing biomedical research? Interested in the challenges in today’s global data-sharing environment? Attend this half-day conference at the Montreal Neurological Institute on the scientific, ethical, legal and social issues with data sharing. Register here.

Mobile Technology:
Accessing McGill Library’s collections and services from the palm of your hand
Friday, November 11
Would you like to make better use of electronic resources in your teaching and research? Do you own a mobile device that you aren’t taking full advantage of for your work? Would you like information about the different e-book readers, tablets and smart phones? This workshop will address your burning questions. Register here.

TEACHING RESOURCES

McGill Overdrive
Welcome to McGill Library’s collection of downloadable media: find eBooks, Audiobooks, Videos and more! Available 24/7, now your library is always open! Download your selections to your PC to use, or transfer to a compatible portable device for use on-the-go. It’s quick, easy and you can do it anytime!
