This information bulletin is an initiative from Content and Collaboration Solutions and Teaching and Learning Services designed to inform you of upcoming events to enhance your teaching at McGill University.

FEATURED EVENTS

Beginning the Supervisory Alliance
April 8
What is a supervisory alliance? The session will introduce a framework to discuss this relationship between supervisor and supervisee in terms of the Bond, Goals, and Tasks. The presentation and discussion will provide you with suggestions, ideas and a model to enable you to collaborate more successfully with your graduate students.

Introduction to Course Design and Teaching
May 9 and May 14
Would you like to (re)design one of your courses and enhance your teaching skills? Learn about strategies that focus on enhancing student learning? Develop a course syllabus and exchange feedback with fellow faculty members and facilitators from Teaching and Learning Services in this 1 ½ day workshop.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Help, My Supervision (Supervisee?) Is in Trouble
April 22
In this workshop, McGill counselors and clinicians will present information to help you identify evidence of mental health problems, and to decide when to refer a student. We will consider strategies for effective boundary setting and discuss the resulting mutual benefits for supervisors and supervisees. Each participant will be asked to present some hypothetical experiences during this workshop.

Exploiting the Mentally Ill in Clinical Research (click on Conferences and Lectures)
May 10
The most serious ethical hazard of clinical research has always been that of exploiting vulnerable subjects. In this Research Ethics lecture, Professor Carl Elliott, Center for Bioethics, Department of Pediatrics, University of Minnesota, will examine the issue of exploitation and suggest ways in which it can be stopped.
Interdisciplinary Teaching Initiatives
May 24
The Faculty of Law, Teaching and Learning Services and the Marcel Desautels Institute for Integrated Management will host a workshop on interdisciplinary teaching initiatives to which all members of the McGill community are invited. The goal of the workshop is to generate ideas for developing similar interdisciplinary and experiential learning initiatives at McGill. If you would like to attend, please RSVP.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Course evaluations now open!
March 25 to April 16 (or April 30)
Get feedback from your students! Please encourage your students to provide feedback before the end of the regular course evaluation period on Tuesday, Apr. 16 (or Apr. 30 for courses in units following the extended evaluation period). You can monitor the response rates and view the evaluation period for your courses here: Mercury for Instructors. Any questions? Write to: mercury.info@mcgill.ca.

University Student Assessment Policy
All students have the right to fair and reasonable assessment of their work; the policy governs the variety and timing of assessment options.

Request Individual Consultation/Custom Group Workshop
Need help with, or advice about, using technology to enhance your teaching? Educational Technology Consultants from Content and Collaboration Solutions are available to meet with you, either one-on-one or in a group session, to address any educational technology needs you may have.
