

LAW & PREJUDICE

16th Annual McGill Graduate Law Conference

Keynote Speech/ Discours de la Professeure Vasuki Nesiah
(New York University):

“Freud and Prejudice: International Law in Analysis”

5th May, 4:15PM

Room 100 Maxwell Cohen Moot Court, McGill University Faculty of Law

Zoom Link:

<https://mcgill.zoom.us/j/85956446056?pwd=a2F6S2Y1ZDhFMmU0K1ZMWFJhNm1Rdz09>

Meeting ID: 859 5644 6056

Passcode: 548800

Prof. Vasuki Nesiah is Professor of Practice in Human Rights and International Law at the Gallatin School, at NYU. She is also a founding member of Third World Approaches to International Law (TWAAIL). Her current book projects include International Conflict Feminism (under contract with UPenn. Press) and Reading the Ruins: Slavery, Colonialism and International Law. She is also co-editing TWAAIL: A Handbook (under contract with Elgar). She is originally from Sri Lanka.

