

Faculty Matters - Preparing for PASL

Prof. Andrea Creech
Schulich School of Music
Associate Dean,
Academic and Student Affairs

Prof. Lawrence Chen
Faculty of Engineering Academic Lead and Faculty Scholar, ELATE (Enhancing Learning and Teaching in Engineering)

Jordan Leeson, U3
(fourth year) Physiology, minor - Anthropology

Dr. Margo Echenberg
Teaching and Learning Services
Academic Associate

- From your perspective, what is important for instructors to know about PASL implementation?
- What are 1-2 things you are doing to support PASL implementation?

TLS tips for preparing for PASL

Learn

more about what's changing: Key differences between PASL and USAP

Get

feedback on your current assessment practices from your students: add up to 3 custom questions on Mercury course evaluations. strategies and recommendations related to assessment:

Explore

strategies and recommendations related to assessment:

- PASL website For instructors
- Assess in the Teaching and Learning Knowledge Base

TLS resources

For guidance in sharing assessment criteria with students: Providing feedback: Commenting and grading

a) Rubrics, The basics

b) Examples of assessment tools

c) coming in May: an updated Course outline template and guide with PASL specifications

TLS support

---

Stay in touch! Focus on Teaching bulletin; Events on the PASL website

Book an individual consultation at TLS

Invite TLS for a PASL info session in your unit

Ask questions any time on the PASL webform

