

ARCUS

symposium

University of California
BERKELEY

April 4 2008
Wurster Hall Room 270

The Arcus Endowment Symposium brings together past recipients of Arcus grants with the current Arcus Scholar-in-Residence for roundtable presentations and discussion about their projects and the issues they raise for architectural education, research and professional practice.

- 12:30 PM Introduction
C. Greig Crysler, Program Director, Arcus Endowment, Associate Professor, Department of Architecture, Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies, UC Berkeley
- 12:40-1:00 Regimes of Beauty: Homosexuality, Neoliberalism and AIDS Politics in Bombay and Delhi
Lawrence Cohen, Associate Professor, Department of Anthropology, UC Berkeley
- 1:05-1:25 The Built Space of Transsexual Embodiment Susan Stryker, Ruth Wynn Woodward Chair 2007-08 at Simon Fraser University
- 1:30-2:00 Discussion
- 2:05-2:25 Spaces of Queer Culture, Kinship and the Ballroom Performance in Detroit, Michigan
Marlon Bailey, Assistant Professor of Gender Studies and African American and African Diaspora Studies, Indiana University-Bloomington
- 2:30-2:50 Boundaries of Difference: The Toronto Party Wall Project
Pina Petricone, Associate Professor, Faculty of Architecture, Landscape and Design, University of Toronto, partner in Giannone Associates Architects
- 2:55-3:30 Roundtable Discussion
- 3:30-3:45 Tea / Coffee Break
- 3:45-4:05 Sex and the Single Building: Gender, Sexuality and Architectural Education
Annmarie Adams, Arcus Scholar-in-Residence Spring 2008, William C.
MacDonald Professor at the School of Architecture, McGill University, Montreal
- 4:05-4:40 Concluding Discussion

For more information contact : Arcusendowment@gmail.com
Image Credit : Hudin Varela www.hudin Varela.com
Poster Designed by Berkeley Architecture Journal