Tenure-Track Faculty Position
Open to rank of Assistant Professor
Canada Research Chair Tier 2 in Korean Studies

Faculty: Arts

Department/School: East Asian Studies

The Canada Research Chair is also open to internal candidates who already hold a tenure-track or tenured faculty position at McGill University.

Position Description

The successful candidate will be able to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in her/his area of specialization as well as a general course in Korean culture at the introductory level, and be a productive, dynamic and committed researcher and inspiring teacher. S/he will also assume a leadership role in the development and advancement of Korean Studies at McGill University. The area of specialization is open but applications from candidates who specialize in modern and contemporary Korea, including the fields of film and new media, women’s and gender studies, popular culture, cultural studies, and/or modern and contemporary literature, are especially welcome. Candidates with an interest in interdisciplinary and interregional research are encouraged to apply.

Inquiries should be addressed to: Prof. Philip Buckley, Chair, Dept. of East Asian Studies, McGill University, 688 Sherbrooke Street West, Room 425, Montreal, QC, Canada H3A 3R1 (philip.buckley@mcgill.ca).

The successful candidate that satisfies the eligibility conditions of the Canada Research Chair (CRC) program may be supported by the University for nomination to a Tier 2 Chair in Korean Studies, which provides protected time for research within a full-time academic appointment.

Nominees for Tier 2 Chair positions must be emerging scholars and hold the rank of assistant or associate professors, or possess the necessary qualifications to be appointed to these levels. A nominee who is more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree and has experienced legitimate career interruptions (e.g., maternity or parental leave, extended sick leave, clinical training, and family care) will be taken into consideration using the Tier 2 justification process.

Eligibility conditions for CRCs are found at http://www.chairs-chaires.gc.ca/program-programme/nomination-mise_en_candidature-eng.aspx#s3
Job Duties

Your primary academic duties consist of: teaching; research and other scholarly and professional activities; and service contributions to the University and scholarly communities.

Qualifications and Education Requirements

Applicants must have a PhD in hand or be very near completion at the time of appointment. Teaching experience is preferred. Knowledge of French is an asset.

Candidates who do not satisfy the CRC eligibility criteria for a Tier 2 Chair are nonetheless invited to apply for the position.

COMMITMENT TO EQUITY AND DIVERSITY

McGill University hires on the basis of merit and is strongly committed to equity and diversity within its community. We welcome and encourage applications from racialized persons/visible minorities, women, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, ethnic minorities, and persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, as well as from all qualified candidates with the skills and knowledge to productively engage with diverse communities.

McGill further recognizes and fairly considers the impact of leaves (e.g., family care or health-related) that may contribute to career interruptions or slowdowns. Candidates are encouraged to signal any leave that affected productivity, may have had an effect on their career path. This information will be considered to ensure the equitable assessment of the candidate’s record.

McGill implements an employment equity program and encourages members of designated equity groups to self-identify. It further seeks to ensure the equitable treatment and full inclusion of persons with disabilities by striving for the implementation of universal design principles transversally, across all facets of the University community, and through accommodation policies and procedures. Persons with disabilities who anticipate needing accommodations for any part of the application process may contact, in confidence, Professor Angela Campbell, Associate Provost (Equity and Academic Policies) by email or phone at 514-398-1660.

All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
