

Hiring Unit:
Biology Dept.

Course Title and Course Number:
BIOL 306 Neural Basis of Behaviour

Estimated Number of Positions:
2

Total Hours of Work per Term:
120

Position Summary:

- Provide feedback and grading for written assignments. Students will submit short answer assignments that must be graded for accuracy and clarity with feedback on communication effectiveness.
- Grade short answer questions on midterm and/or final exams.
- Hold office hours and provide a tutorial for the midterm or final
- Some help with exam invigilation or with oral examinations may be required.

Qualifications:

- Deep working knowledge of basic neuroscience and familiarity with the relevant literature on the topic of the neural basis of behaviour.
- In addition to scientific knowledge, must have excellent command of English language and be able to provide substantive feedback on written assignments such as essays.
- Strong organizational and interpersonal skills are required.