

Graduate Certificate in Translational Biomedical Engineering

PERSONAL STATEMENT QUESTIONS

Please complete the following questions on separate pages and upload as one PDF document in uApply.

1. Explain why you intend to pursue your studies in translational biomedical engineering at this time (maximum 500 words).
2. Explain how the McGill Graduate Certificate in Translational Biomedical Engineering program will help you achieve your professional goals (maximum 500 words).

All information required on this form must be given in full or the Admissions Committee will not consider the application. False information will invalidate the application and will result in the immediate denial of admission. In the case where an applicant has been granted admission, the acceptance will be revoked.

By uploading this document I hereby certify that all statements made in connection with this application are true and complete and that I prepared and wrote the essay without any assistance. I am aware that any misrepresentation of facts contained in my supporting documents provides just cause for denial of admission or the revocation of admission.

The University reserves the right to make changes to the information contained herein without prior notice.

