

Burney Society UK

Research Bursary 2021- 2022

Celebrating the work of Frances Burney, her family, and contemporaries

Portrait miniature of Fanny Burney, 1783, John Bogle (1746-1804) By Courtesy Anonymous collection, New York, NY

- The Bursary is open to post-graduate students, recent graduates, and independent researchers who wish to undertake research on the Burney family and their wider circle. Research should be based on, but need not be restricted to, UK archives and records.
- An award of £300 will be made towards any justifiable expenses incurred during the research. Expenses could include access to archival and other research materials, photocopying, scanning, childcare, travel, and accommodation expenses. The Bursary includes complimentary membership of the Burney Society UK for 2021-2022.
- The successful candidate will be expected to undertake this research by early September 2022 and write a paper for the Burney Society AGM in late September 2022. This paper will also be considered for our Newsletter and website.
- Application form and additional information available from <https://burneysociety.uk/research-bursary>
- The deadline for applications is 30th April 2021 and the winner will be informed in June 2021.
- For further information or queries please email Gillian Skinner at ukburneysociety@gmail.com