The Globalization of Cancer

Annie Sasco
M.D., Dr P.H.

Discover why cancer rates are increasing worldwide,
the environment might be playing a bigger role than we think.
Learn what you can do to reduce your risk and the risk of those around you.

Dr. Sasco is a leading expert on cancer, author and co-author of more than 400 publications on a great variety of cancer-related topics. She is a researcher, a professor, a 2005 nominee for the Peace Nobel Prize and a truly committed leader in the fight against cancer.
