

EXPLORING INDIGENOUS PERSPECTIVES

Over Summer 2019, we are pleased to offer students a chance to learn more about Indigenous peoples living on and around Tiohtiá:ke/Montreal through this selection of special events, open to all.

June 20
12–3 pm

MORSL Celebrates National Indigenous People's Day

Come to our offices for food, conversation, book browsing and video screenings to celebrate this day.

June 21
11 am–3 pm

Visit to the First Nations Garden

See the Botanical Garden's specially-curated First Nations Garden and observe National Indigenous People's Day celebrations, including dances by Indigenous performers.

July 13
10 am–7 pm

Visit to Kahnawake reserve

Attend the Echoes of a Proud Nation Pow Wow and visit the St. Kateri church.

August 11
11am–3 pm

Ecumenical Mass and Blanket Exercise

As part of Montreal's First Nations Festival, the historic Gesù church is offering a mass co-led with Indigenous elders, followed by a profoundly moving blanket exercise. All are welcome.

Registration required. Free for current McGill students who pay Student Services fee. For others who wish to attend, charges may apply depending on the event.

McGill Office of Religious & Spiritual Life
mcgill.ca/morsl morsl@mcgill.ca

McGill | STUDENT SERVICES

