

TIME	EVENT
8:30am	Registration/Continental breakfast
9:00am	Welcome address Speaker Dr. Annette Majnemer
9:05am	Keynote Speaker: Dr. Susan Law (Family Medicine; McGill University)
9:45am	How-To Workshop: Essential tools for designing an effective KT implementation plan Speaker: Dr. André Bussi�eres
10:30am	Small group activity: Designing your KT implementation plan
11:15am	Large group discussion Speaker: Dr. Andr�e Bussi�eres
11:30am	KT Caf�e PART 1
12:00pm	LUNCH
1:00pm	Keynote Speaker: Nancy Cox (CSSS Cavendish)
1:45pm	Oral Presentations (1-3)
2:30pm	NETWORKING BREAK (refreshments)
2:50pm	KT Caf�e PART 2
3:15pm	Oral Presentations (4-7)
4:30pm	Closing remarks

Oral Presentations

1	A chronic low back pain patient toolkit to enhance patient self-management and healthcare communication and coordination M. Lahaie (Edith Strauss awardee) and team
2	D�veloppement d'outils de KT pour promouvoir l'utilisation de la danse comme modalit� th�rapeutique aupr�s des AVC en RFI M. Demers (Edith Strauss awardee) and team
3	Determining the use of evidence-based practice in selecting intervention for children with cerebral palsy: Introducing CP-Engine B. Darsaklis (Edith Strauss awardee) and team
4	Resources for children with developmental coordination disorder (DCD): Tailoring knowledge tools for rehabilitation centres and parent associations in Qu�bec C. Camden (Edith Strauss awardee) and team
5	Understanding Barriers and Facilitators to Early Mobilization of Patients in the Intensive Care Units D. Anekwe (Edith Strauss awardee) and team
6	Burn Survivor Rehabilitation: Practice Guidelines Development Training and Capacity Building Proposal A. Chouinard (Edith Strauss awardee) and team
7	Optimizing Primary Healthcare Service in Chronic Low Back Pain Management: KT Implementation O. Eilayyan (Edith Strauss awardee) and team

KT Caf e (short informal round-table discussions)

PART 1 Tables	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Best practice for sensory screening in older adults by Occupational Therapists: Where are we &amp; where should we be? (W. Wittich)</li> <li>Perceived roles, experiences and impact of SAGEs (Specialists in the Application and Generalization of Expertise) as change agents in a rehabilitation center: a case-study (D. Zidarov)</li> <li>Implementation of an intergenerational inclusive wellness park to facilitate reintegration into leisure activities for clients in a rehabilitation hospital (M. Slanik)</li> <li>Does current practice align with best practice for intensive hand function training in children with hemiplegia? (K. Shikako-Thomas)</li> </ol>
PART 2 Tables	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Impact of Osteogenesis Imperfecta on Families: Survey of parent experiences, challenges, and expectations (N. Dahan/J. Dogba)</li> <li>Change in rehabilitation clinicians' practices related to upper limb management post-stroke over the past year: do changes align with best practice guidelines? (R. Purohit)</li> <li>Management of children with Cerebral Palsy – Has rehabilitation practice changed in the last 7 years? (E. Steven)</li> <li>Refining functional impairment criteria in individuals with Mild Cognitive Impairment (J. Kwok)</li> <li>Teachers' perception of their own performance, satisfaction, self-efficacy to support self-regulation of their students (C. Hui)</li> </ol>