

The Child Center for Development and Mental Health at the Jewish General Hospital and McGill's School of Communication Sciences and Disorders are looking to hire a Speech-Language Pathologist for the 2015 Spring/Summer Semester (end of April to July) with the possibility of renewal.

Responsibilities:

- Supervise and mentor two Master's S-LP students
- Determine and prioritize caseload needs
- Provide S-LP services in English to children attending the Early Childhood Disorder day hospital
- Apply the peer coaching model of supervision (training to be provided)
- Collaborate with the interdisciplinary team

Requirements & experience:

- OOAQ Membership (Ordre des orthophonistes et audiologistes du Québec)
- At least 2 years of experience working as an S-LP

Assets:

- Experience working with school-aged children
- Demonstrated ability to work within an interdisciplinary team
- Previous student supervision experience

Salary and schedule:

- 2 day per week for 12 weeks
- 24 days with students, 2 preparation days
- Compensation will be competitive to the top of the Quebec government pay grid

Please send your CV and Cover Letter to Kelly Root and Sophie Vaillancourt (practicum.scsd@mcgill.ca) by March 20, 2015.

McGill University is committed to equity in employment and diversity. It welcomes applications from Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, ethnic minorities, persons of minority sexual orientation or gender identity, visible minorities, women, and others who may contribute to diversification. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.