

Leadership “Lunch & Learn”

September 28th, 2018

12:00 p.m.–1:30 p.m.

680 Sherbrooke St. West
Room 1914

\**Lunch will be served****

*This event is sponsored by:
The McGill Nursing Collaborative for Education and Innovation in Patient- and Family-Centered Care*

Don't miss this unique opportunity!
We are pleased to invite you to attend this Leadership “Lunch and Learn” event with Senator Pate.

*What does the issue of incarcerated women have to do with us as nurses?
Come and find out! The Senator will lead us in discussion about the ‘path to criminality’ caused by deeply embedded and systemic forces of colonialism and poverty, particularly for Indigenous women. Our Codes of Ethics state we must lead and act against social injustice. So, join us to learn what we can do together. This is for all nurses who believe in justice: at the bedside, in the unit or hospital, in our communities and in our society.*

Presenter:

The Honourable Senator

Kim Pate

C.M., Independent Senator for Ontario

Kim Pate was appointed to the Senate of Canada on November 10, 2016. She is a nationally renowned advocate who has spent the last 35 years working in and around the legal and penal systems of Canada, with and on behalf of some of the most marginalized, victimized, criminalized and institutionalized — particularly imprisoned youth, men and women.

Kim Pate is widely credited as the driving force behind the Inquiry into Certain Events at the Prison for Women in Kingston, headed by Justice Louise Arbour. During the Inquiry, she supported women as they aired their experiences and was a critical resource and witness in the Inquiry itself.

Senator Pate is a member of the Order of Canada, a recipient of the Governor General's Award in Commemoration of the Persons Case, the Canadian Bar Association's Bertha Wilson Touchstone Award, and five honorary doctorates (Law Society of Upper Canada, University of Ottawa, Carleton University, St. Thomas University and Wilfred Laurier University).

Please RSVP by September 14th to: gilbert.primeau@mcgill.ca
There will be a maximum of 35 attendees so register soon!