

Promoting Democracy and Human Rights through Education and Libraries in Guatemala

Lecture series presented by Librarians Without Borders McGill

PHOTO CREDIT: John Abernathy Photography <http://www.abernathyphoto.com>

Jorge Chojolán brings an inspiring story of struggle, perseverance and success from his experiences as the founder and director of a non-profit school in Guatemala.

Libraries & Education in Guatemala

Date: Monday November 19

Place: Thomson House basement

Time: 6pm - 8pm

Indigenous Issues & Human Rights in Guatemala

Date: Tuesday November 20

Place: Peterson Hall, room 116
(3460 McTavish)

Time: Noon to 1:30pm

For more information or to RSVP, please visit <http://librarianswithoutbordersmcgill.wordpress.com>