Essentials of Psychiatry: An Overview for Family Physicians and other Specialists

Mark your calendar and join us for our inaugural virtual conference series in mental health.

This four-part webinar series is a joint collaboration between McGill University's Office for Continuing Professional Development (CPD) and the McGill Department of Psychiatry, and will welcome family physicians and other medical specialists, residents and medical students, nurse practitioners and other health care professionals.

Flexible Learning: Watch LIVE or ON-DEMAND at your convenience!

All sessions will be made available as online learning modules for up to 1 full year.

Program agenda now confirmed and registration details will be available in the coming weeks.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

By the end of this series, learners will be able to:

- Demonstrate integration of psychiatric knowledge, clinical skills, and professional attitudes while providing patient-centered care;
- Identify comorbidities that could complicate the diagnosis, treatment and management of complex psychiatric disorders;
- Select appropriate diagnosis, treatment and management of common psychiatric disorders;
- Know when and how to refer psychiatric patients to other specialists.

PROGRAM CO-CHAIRS:

Gabriella Gobbi, MD, PhD, CSPQ

Leonora Lalla, MDCM, CCFP, FCFP

SCIENTIFIC PLANNING COMMITTEE:

Theodore Kolivakis, MD, FRCPC
