

Save the date: Thursday November 2, 2017

Inaugural annual symposium on emerging and complex infectious diseases:

Honouring a champion!

In memory of Dr Mark Wainberg
(1945-2017)

Jewish General Hospital & McGill University
Block B Amphitheatre
3755 Cote St Catherine
Montreal H3T 1E2

8h00 - 17h00

Featuring:

D^{re} Françoise Barré-Sinoussi, Nobel Laureate, Institut Pasteur, Paris, France

« HIV translational science: from the first ARVs to the hope of a cure »

D^r Myron Cohen, University of North Carolina Chapel Hill

« Treatment as prevention, lessons from HIV »

D^r Gerald Friedland, Yale University

« Confronting HIV and TB from the Bronx, NY to Tugela Ferry KwaZuluNatal, South Africa and Beyond »

Ron Rosenes, CM, Community Health Advocate

« Mark Wainberg as a passionate HIV community advocate and ally »

D^{re} Marina Klein, McGill University Health Centre

« Towards Elimination of Hepatitis C Virus in HIV Infected Populations »

D^{re} Catherine Hankins, McGill University Health Centre

« HIV science to action: knowledge translation for lasting impact »

D^r Matthias Götte, University of Alberta

« Management of newly emerging infections- Lessons learned from HIV »

Réservez cette date : Jeudi, le 2 novembre, 2017

1^{er} Symposium annuel sur les infections émergentes:
célébrons un pionnier!

En commémoration du
Dr Mark Wainberg (1945-2017)

Hôpital général juif et Université McGill
Amphithéâtre Block B
3755 Cote St Catherine
Montréal H3T 1E2

8h00 - 17h00

Les conférenciers seront:

D^{re} Françoise Barré-Sinoussi, Lauréate du prix Nobel, Institut Pasteur, Paris, France

« HIV translational science: from the first ARVs to the hope of a cure »

D^r Myron Cohen, Université de la Caroline du Nord Chapel Hill

« Treatment as prevention, lessons from HIV »

D^r Gerald Friedland, Université Yale

« Confronting HIV and TB from the Bronx, NY to Tugela Ferry KwaZuluNatal, South Africa and Beyond »

Ron Rosenes, CM, Promoteur de la santé communautaire

« Mark Wainberg as a passionate HIV community advocate and ally »

D^{re} Marina Klein, Centre Universitaire de Santé McGill

« Towards Elimination of Hepatitis C Virus in HIV Infected Populations »

D^{re} Catherine Hankins, McGill University Health Centre

« HIV science to action: knowledge translation for lasting impact »

D^r Matthias Götte, Université de l'Alberta

« Management of newly emerging infections - Lessons learned from HIV »