Department of History and Classical Studies Major Program in Classics (36 credits) Advising/Audit Form For students entering McGill in Fall 2017 or later

Student Name:	udent Number: Student email:
Classical Studies Stream	Classical Languages Stream
<ul> <li>9 credits from the following:</li> <li>CLAS 201 Greece and Rome (3 credits)</li> <li>CLAS 301 Ancient Greek Literature and Society (3 credits)</li> <li>CLAS 302 Roman Literature and Society (3 credits)</li> <li>27 credits of classics (CLAS) or related courses accordillowing stipulations:</li> <li>Minimum 6 credits intermediate Ancient Greek are 310, 312, 315, 320, 322, 326)</li> <li>NOTE: Minimum 6 credits 400-level CLAS courses.</li> <li>NOTE: Maximum 12 credits of complementary condevel.</li> <li>NOTE: 9 credits maximum of non-CLAS courses may toward the program.</li> </ul>	following stipulations:  • Minimum 6 credits advanced Ancient Greek and/or Latin (CLAS 410, 412, 419, 420, 422, 429).  • NOTE: Maximum 12 credits of complementary courses at the 200 level.  • NOTE: 9 credits maximum of non-CLAS courses may be counted toward the program.

Additional Note: For either stream students may count a maximum total of 12 credits of non-CLAS McGill courses and/or classics courses not taken at McGill (transfer credits) toward the program.

Course	Title	Classical Language	Credits	Grade
CLAS 201	Greece and Rome
CLAS 4
CLAS 4
CLAS courses used	d for other programs:
CLAS courses used	d for electives:
Approved for grad	duation Date Advisor Signatu	ure

Adviser/Date:
Adviser/Date:

Additional notes: