Preparing for your Career in Certificate in Indigenous Business Management

Whether you are a young adult starting a new career or a well-established manager, the workforce is becoming better educated and more sophisticated, making the job market more and more competitive. This program is designed to help you gain the key transferable skills employers are looking for. In addition to essential business knowledge and skills, you will learn to think creatively and critically, express your views and ideas clearly, manage your time effectively, and work well independently and in teams.

The Certificate in Indigenous Business Management will jump start or advance the careers of First Nations, Inuit and Métis Peoples while allowing students to remain in their communities. With this education you can help shape your Nation's future.
This program is intended for Indigenous students as a result of the need expressed by Indigenous community leaders. The 21st century demands multidisciplinary individuals, teams, communities and organizations. This program introduces the knowledge and competencies essential to starting, promoting, and managing a socially relevant business or organization. It focuses on numerical and financial literacy, as well as fundamental communication and management skills. It will help develop the skills needed to create a business or effectively work in an established organization. Topics include: create a business plan, develop projects, communicate with confidence, effectively manage internal and external stakeholders, understand the fundamentals of how organizations operate within a social, political, and legal framework, and negotiate and manage conflict.

Our Program Promotes:

- Understanding the Indigenous Laws that influence today's business and government operations
- Building analytical problem-solving and critical thinking skills
- Working cooperatively and productively with others
- Developing business management knowledge and competencies
- Managing projects from start to finish to accomplish organizational objectives
- Managing people and data in organizations

Admission Requirements:

All students are eligible to apply to the program, but priority will be given to First Nations, Inuit and Métis students. To be admitted to an Undergraduate Certificate in Indigenous Business Management:

Applicants must hold a CEGEP diploma (DCS, DEC or equivalent)

OR

Applicants who do not have the normal academic background for admission but are 21 years of age and older may be admitted as mature students

OR

Applicants between 18 and 21 years of age who do not have a CEGEP diploma but have at least a high school leaving certificate may be accepted into a qualifying program (a copy of the certificate must be provided).

WHAT IS AN INTEGRATED BLENDED-ONLINE PROGRAM?

Definitions:

- Live-Online: Each class is delivered entirely online and is led by one or more course lecturers using live virtual conferencing.

- Self-Directed Online: This model allows students to learn at their own pace, autonomously, without the intervention of a course lecturer or tutor.

- Integrated Blended-Online: This style of delivery combines live-online and self-directed online courses allowing for the flexibility of a digital classroom with the dynamics of a traditional one.

How:

- Half of your classes will meet live online, and the other half you will complete independently.
- Students take two classes simultaneously, and assignments and assessments are integrated.
- Students can choose to book video conference meetings with their course lecturers for a more individualized learning experience.
- Teamwork with classmates will encourage using innovative technology and skills that are useful for working remotely.
- Live classes will help students to synthesize information.

Why Enroll in Our Integrated Blended-Online Program?

- The flexibility to take courses from the comfort of your home, workplace or community
- The opportunity to learn from practitioners in the field, whose focus on transmitting their expertise bridges the gap between higher education and the workplace
- The advantage of saving on travel and relocation expenses
- The convenience to complete the program part-time without leaving your job

Fact:
Blended programs reportedly contribute to a higher student success rate than both physical classrooms and fully online programs.
You can apply for a program online. It’s quick, simple and secure.

1. Choose a program of study.
   Note: If you wish, you can apply to two programs to be followed concurrently, provided they are at the same level and offered by the same department.

2. Review the admission requirements for the program you have selected and gather all necessary documentation.
   Note: All students applying to Career and Professional Development programs must be proficient in English. To be admitted to a graduate level program, you must have an undergraduate degree.

3. Ensure you have a credit card (Visa or Mastercard) for the non-refundable application fee. The fee must be paid online to submit your application. For admission to Winter 2020 and onwards: $89.52 CAD.

4. Upon completing your online application, you will receive a confirmation email with a McGill ID number and a 6-character PIN (Personal Identification Number).

5. Within 24 - 48 hours after receiving your e-mail confirmation, you can track the status of your application and upload your supporting documents, including transcripts (if applicable), by signing into Minerva (McGill’s online student information system).

6. Ensure that you have uploaded all required supporting documents, as per the admission requirements of your chosen program.

7. Wait for your response. You can check the status of your application at any time using Minerva.

8. Once your file has been reviewed and a final decision has been made, admitted students will receive a “Letter of Admission” confirming the program that you have been admitted to, along with registration instructions. You can then register for your courses online during the appropriate registration period.

If you are registering online for ONLINE courses, please ensure that your section code ends with a “4,” this determines that your class is online.

If you are unsure of what classes to take, please email cpdonline.scs@mcgill.ca for more details on what is being offered this semester, and please let us know if you require assistance.
Students enrolled in the program have access to the following support:

A NORTHERN COORDINATOR
will work closely with McGill University to oversee course administration. The Coordinator will collect your application forms, registration forms, and supporting documents to send to McGill.

TECHNICAL SUPPORT
is available for both students and course lecturers during classes.

A DEDICATED ADVISOR
at the School of Continuing Studies is available to meet with students online to discuss all aspects of their education.
