English Language & Culture Program
Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1. What do I need to take remote English Language & Culture courses?

   You need a good internet connection, a computer, speakers/headphones, a microphone, and a webcam.

2. Is the schedule different for the remote courses?

   Yes. The remote classes on Zoom will take place Monday-Friday from 9:00 AM to 12:00 AM Eastern Time (Montreal time). There will be additional work to do every day online, but with no fixed schedule. You can expect to spend approximately 5 hours per day on course work, including private Zoom sessions with your instructor, structured exercises and online activities. The summer session 2 is offered in two formats the morning or the evening from Sunday-Thursday from 7:30 PM - 10:30 PM Eastern Time (Montreal time).

3. Do the courses count for the Certificate of Proficiency?

   Yes! They have the same course numbers and are part of the McGill Certificate of Proficiency English Language and Culture program.

4. What are the fees?

   The fees for all students are $2,262 CAD per session. Books are not included. International students who are living in Canada must also pay for Blue Cross medical insurance ($90 per semester).

5. How can I get technical support?

   Help for Zoom and MyCourses is available by email at techsupport.scs@mcgill.ca
