

Coronavirus (COVID-19) Self-Reporting

Use this form to notify McGill that you have been diagnosed with Coronavirus (COVID-19) or that you are in mandatory isolation or are staying home because you are experiencing flu-like symptoms. Please refer to the government of Quebec Coronavirus \(COVID 19\) advisory and recommendations webpage, including the Symptoms and Treatments section.

In circumstances where it is not possible to obtain a medical note, submitting this form will be considered in place of a valid medical note for requests for special arrangements that would otherwise need one (for example deferred exam or late course withdrawal). If you require special arrangements as a result of your absence, you must also submit your request for special arrangements using the regular protocol by contacting your Faculty Student Affairs Office, Instructor, Service Point, or Graduate Program Administrator.

If you indicate that you have tested positive for COVID-19, the information will be sent to McGill Central Administration, who may contact you in an effort to facilitate the response of public health authorities. If you submit a request for special arrangements as a result of your absence, your Faculty Student Affairs Office, Instructor, Service Point, or Graduate Program Administrator may access the information in assessing your request.

Information collected will be kept safely and confidentially and any personal information will not be disclosed unless as required by law or with the student's express consent.

Disclosure of exposure or illness is required in order to safeguard the health and safety and restrict the outbreak in the McGill community. Information collected will be kept safely and any personal information will not be disclosed unless as required by law or with the student's express consent.
