Research Assistant

TITLE: Casual Research Assistant
LOCATION: Work remotely

DUTIES/RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE POSITION: The research assistant will assist in a review of course components of the school curriculum. The project is led by Professor Katherine Maurer and Professor Charles Gyan of the Equity Diversity Decolonization Indigenization Initiative.

The successful candidate will be responsible for extracting data from syllabi and coding in NVivo. The RA may also assist with other duties related to the EDDII activities. The RA will work closely with a PhD candidate.

HOURS: The position is 10-15 hours/week until December 31, 2020. The minimum hourly rate is $16.00/hour and may be adjusted based on experience.
The position begins as soon as possible. There may be an option to extend the contract.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Prior experience using NVivo or similar qualitative data coding software
- Ability to work independently
- Interest in developing research knowledge and skills and critical analysis based on EDDII Principles

APPLICATION PROCESS: A cover letter, CV, and two reference contacts should be emailed to: edissw@mcgill.ca

APPLICATION DEADLINE: until the position is filled

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT: The Equity Diversity Decolonization Indigenization Initiative: edissw@mcgill.ca