

Meet and Greet for McGill Employees with Disabilities and Their Allies

What: A meet and greet with other employees with disabilities and allies, a space to discuss accommodations at work, learn about the types of support available, and share experiences.

Why: Connect with others in a relaxed atmosphere, discuss the needs of employees with disabilities and help work towards creating more inclusive and socially supportive workplaces at McGill!

When and Where: April 20th, 12:00 – 13:30
New Chancellor Day Hall #202

The building & room are wheelchair accessible, single-stall, accessible washroom on the 3rd floor.

Light refreshments provided!

Please RVSP with any access needs.

RSVP at tiny.cc/rsvpdis or by email:

andrea.miller-nesbitt@mcgill.ca

McGill's Adapted Mobility Bus:

<https://www.mcgill.ca/transport/adapted>

Brought to you by SEDE and the JBSCE
Subcommittee on Persons with Disabilities

