

This announcement is sent on behalf of Dean Allison

---

It gives me great pleasure to announce that Romantha Descartes has been selected for the Faculty's 2013 Most Valuable Person Award.

In selecting Romantha for the award this year, we recognize her unconditional commitment and continual support for students, her dedication to patient care, her organizational skills in running the Summer Clinic and her striving to perform excellent work for the Faculty.

Congratulations, Romantha, for your hard work and for making the students' clinical experience at the Undergraduate Teaching Clinic so special.