

Philippe Levy

Mr. Levy has taught more than 20 different courses in Accounting and Finance to undergraduate and graduate students. He received the Recognition Award for University Teaching by the Chartered Accountancy profession in Canada and is a recipient of the McGill Faculty of Management's Distinguished Teaching Award. Mr. Levy has consistently maintained the highest course satisfaction ratings in the faculty. He has also provided custom business and executive programs for small to large Multinational Corporations with up to 25,000 participants through direct and "train the trainer" deliveries. Mr. Levy is a former vice-president of a public company and continues to provide consulting services relating to mergers and acquisitions, expert witness testimony in criminal and civil suits and business planning.