Eligibility: This course is for students who have no previous knowledge of the Japanese language. If you have previous knowledge, you may be required to take a placement test and obtain the permission of the instructor to take the course.

Required Purchases and Materials:
2. Webcam, microphone, computer with stable Internet access (you must have a computer that allows you to have multiple programs or pages open at the same time – e.g. Zoom, MyCourses, and OneDrive) You will need to show your face during attendance-taking, for dialogue presentations, and to confirm your identity for quizzes.

Course Description
This course is designed to provide students with the basic knowledge of Japanese language and will help them develop four well-balanced basic language skills, writing, speaking, listening and reading. Students will learn Japanese characters (hiragana and katakana) in the first three week. After that, no Latin alphabet will be used in class. About 150 Kanji will also be introduced by the end of the course. Upon successful completion of this course, you will be able to:

1) give a basic, short, rehearsed presentation on a familiar subject, such as yourself, your friends or your home country.
2) write a short composition on a familiar subject with short phrases and simple vocabulary.
3) follow speech on a familiar subject which is very slow and carefully articulated.
4) read and understand a short and simple essay on a familiar subject.

Attendance and Conduct
Please be on time. Ideally, you will arrive a few minutes early and thus be prepared to start the lesson at the scheduled time. Students who arrive on Zoom more than 5 minutes late or leave 5 minutes early may stay in the meeting and participate in the class, but will NOT receive attendance points for that class. Attendance mark (lecture session) will be calculated as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Attendance mark (each semester)</th>
<th>Missed instructor’s session (each semester)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>up to 3 classes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4 to 5 classes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>6 to 7 classes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>more than 8 classes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Please note that absence in excess of 20% of the course (13 classes each semester including TA sessions) may result in failure of the course. If you are not able to attend Zoom meetings, please send email to the instructor. She will inform you of the necessary information to catch up the class.

Homework
You have to submit the homework before class starts by 10:00 for Section 1 and by 11:00 for Section 2. If it is submitted after class or during class, it is considered one day late.

- Written homework fully completed and submitted on the due date/time: In general, 2 points each, unless it is very poorly done.
- Recorded homework submitted on the due date/time: 4 points
- One day late: half point (Written: 1 point, Recorded: 2 points each)
- 2 days late: corrected but not points.
- More than 3 days late: No correction, no points.

Make-up tests/quizzes
Quizzes are administered during class hours and must be taken at the scheduled time. You cannot switch sections. There will be no "make-up", unless there is a legitimate reason, such as time zone issues, illness or family affliction, supported by written document. In these cases, you have to contact the instructor within the day when the quiz is scheduled.

MyCourses
Please check MyCourses announcement regularly.
Important Notes

- Students do not have the option of doing extra work to make up or improve their marks.
- An unexplained absence from any quiz counts for zero, unless you have a legitimate reason such as illness. (Normally doctor’s note is required.)

Academic Integrity

1) “McGill University values academic integrity. Therefore, all students must understand the meaning and consequences of cheating, plagiarism and other academic offences under the Code of Student Conduct and Disciplinary Procedures (see http://www.mcgill.ca/students/srr/honest/ for more information).”
(批准 by Senate on 29 January 2003)

In the event of extraordinary circumstances beyond the University’s control, the content and/or evaluation scheme in this course is subject to change.
