Course Description

This course is designed to provide students with the basic knowledge of Japanese language and will help them develop four well-balanced basic language skills, writing, speaking, listening and reading. Students will learn Japanese characters (hiragana and katakana) in the first four weeks. After that, no Latin alphabet will be used in class. About 150 Kanji will also be introduced by the end of the course. Upon successful completion of this course, you will be able to:

- 1) give a basic, short, rehearsed presentation on a familiar subject, such as yourself, your friends or your home country.
- 2) write a short composition on a familiar subject with short phrases and simple vocabulary.
- 3) follow speech on a familiar subject which is very slow and carefully articulated.
- 4) read and understand a short and simple essay on a familiar subject.

Fall Semester: Chapter 1-Chapter 7 (please see the student schedule on My Courses)

	• Homework (Please see the notes below)	5%

Attendance and Conduct:

Please be on time. Ideally, you will arrive a few minutes early and thus be prepared to start the lesson at the scheduled time. Students who arrive more than 10 minutes late or leave more than 10 minutes early may participate in the class, but will NOT receive attendance points for that class. Attendance marks (instructor's session) will be calculated as follows:

Number of instructor's classes missed (each semester)	Attendance mark (each semester)
up to 3 classes	2.5%
4 to 5 classes	2%
6 to 7 classes	1%
more than 8 classes	0%	*1 class=50min

Please note that absence in excess of 20% of the course (13 classes each semester including TA sessions) may result in failure of the course. If you are absent from class, please send an email to the instructor. She will inform you of the necessary information to catch up on the class.

Homework

You must submit the homework before class starts. If it is submitted after class or during class, it is considered one session late. If you are absent from class (without a doctor's note, etc.), you can submit your homework by email by the due date/time in order to receive full marks (you must bring the hard copy the next time you are in class).

- Written homework fully completed and submitted on the due date/time: In general, 2 points each, unless it is very poorly done.
- Recorded homework fully completed and submitted on the due date/time: 4 points
- One session late: half points will be given (Written: 1 point, Recorded: 2 points each)
- 2 sessions late: corrected but no points.
- More than 3 sessions late: No corrections, no points.

Make-up quizzes

Quizzes and tests (excluding the final exam) are administered during class hours and must be taken at the scheduled time. Any time a quiz or test is missed (for any reason), you must contact the instructor on the same day as the quiz/test to discuss whether there is an option to write a make-up (there may be some penalty if no official documentation such as a doctor's note can be provided).

MyCourses

Please check MyCourses announcements regularly.

Important Notes:

- Students do not have the option of doing extra work to make up or improve their marks.
- An unexplained absence from any quiz counts for zero, unless you have a legitimate reason such as illness. (Normally a doctor's note is required.)

McGill University values academic integrity. Therefore, all students must understand the meaning and consequences of cheating, plagiarism and other academic offences under the Code of Student Conduct and Disciplinary Procedures. (Approved by Senate on 29 January 2003) (See McGill's guide to academic honesty for more information.)

In accord with McGill University's Charter of Student Rights, students in this course have the right to submit in English or in French written work that is to be graded. This does not apply to courses in which acquiring proficiency in a language is one of the objectives. (Approved by Senate on 21 January 2009)

Conformément à la Charte des droits de l'étudiant de l'Université McGill, chaque étudiant a le droit de soumettre en français ou en anglais tout travail écrit devant être noté, sauf dans le cas des cours dont l'un des objets est la maîtrise d'une langue. (Énoncé approuvé par le Sénat le 21 janvier 2009)

The University is committed to maintaining teaching and learning spaces that are respectful and inclusive for all. To this end, offensive, violent, or harmful language arising in course contexts may be cause for disciplinary action.

As the instructor of this course, I endeavor to provide an inclusive learning environment. However, if you experience barriers to learning in this course, do not hesitate to discuss them with me and/or the Office for Student Accessibility & Achievement.

Many students may face mental health challenges that can impact not only their academic success but also their ability to thrive in our campus community. Please reach out for support when you need it; many resources are available on-campus, off-campus, and online.

McGill University is located on unceded Indigenous lands in Tiohtià:ke, a site that has long served as a gathering place for Indigenous peoples. The Kanien'kehà:ka of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy are recognized as the traditional custodians of these lands and waters. Today, this area is home to a diverse population of Indigenous and other peoples. We honour, recognize, and respect the continued connections with the past, present and future in our ongoing relationships with Indigenous and other peoples within the Montreal community.

In the event of extraordinary circumstances beyond the University's control, the content and/or evaluation scheme in this course is subject to change.
