

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS MINOR CONCENTRATIONS IN ECONOMICS

<http://www.mcgill.ca/economics/undergraduates/majorminor/>

The Minor Concentration in Economics (18 credits) provides a moderate level of specialization in Economics for students who usually are pursuing Major Concentrations or Honours Programs in other fields of study. It does, however, provide an option to switch to or add a Major Concentration in Economics. There is a special Minor for Management students.

Program Requirements

Complementary Courses

18 credits, of which 6 credits must be from Group A and 12 credits from Group B.

Group A

- ECON 208 Microeconomic Analysis and Applications (3 credits)
- ECON 209 Macroeconomic Analysis and Applications (3 credits)
- ECON 230D1/D2 Microeconomic Theory (6 credits)

Group B

- Economics courses with course numbers above ECON 208 (excluding ECON 295), at least 6 (credits) of which must be at the 300, 400 or 500 level.

Program Notes

Only one of ECON 208 or 230D1/D2 or 250D1/D2 can be credited to the Economics Minor. Only one of ECON 209 or 332/333 or 353/354 can be credited to the Economics Minor. The combination of ECON 230D1/D2 and ECON 209 is allowed.
