

McGill

Tenure-Track Position in School/Applied Child Psychology
Department of Educational and Counselling Psychology
Faculty of Education, McGill University, www.mcgill.ca/edu-ecp/

The Department of Educational and Counselling Psychology invites applications for a tenure-track position in School/Applied Child Psychology at the Assistant Professor rank starting as early as August 1, 2015.

The program made a new hire last year and is looking to expand. We are searching for a candidate with a doctoral degree in school psychology or a related discipline who shows strong professional identity as a school psychologist, evidence of scholarly productivity, development of a coherent program of research consistent with a research-intensive university, and a record of successful teaching. Experience as a practicing school psychologist is desirable. Although area of interest is open, preference is given to persons with quantitative/measurement skills and a school-based research agenda. Eligibility and commitment to achieving licensure in Quebec are required.

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. To ensure full consideration, all materials should be submitted by December 10, 2014.

Persons wishing to be considered for this position should submit electronically an application containing the following documents:

- a description of their program of research
- a statement of teaching philosophy and interests
- a curriculum vitae
- sample publication(s)
- three (3) letters of reference

Please direct your application to: ecp@mcgill.ca. Please include "School/Applied Child Psychology Search" and your name in the subject field. Further inquiries can be directed to ecp@mcgill.ca. Salary is negotiable, according to qualifications and experience.

Founded in 1821, McGill University is one of Canada's leading research-intensive universities, with students from over 160 countries. Located centrally in the vibrant city of Montreal, a city widely known as socially diverse, cosmopolitan, and bilingual (French/English) with a wealth of culture. English is the language of instruction at McGill, but knowledge of French is an asset.

McGill University is committed to diversity and equity in employment. It welcomes applications from: women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, ethnic minorities, persons of minority sexual orientation or gender identity, visible minorities, and others who may contribute to diversification.

All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.