Course Description: This course will allow students to develop their understanding about how movement is created. Students will explore a variety of topics involving dance and a variety of skills commonly observed within gymnastics.

Students will also apply the Quebec education program (QEP) to both the elementary and high school level, with emphasis placed on the following competencies

- Competency 1 (Demonstrates movements in different physical activity settings)
- Competency 2 (Interacts with others in different physical activity settings)

Learning Outcomes: At the completion of this course, students will be to:

- Understand how to apply the progressions of learning within the QEP
- Create multiple learning situations suitable for specific grades and abilities
- Apply safety precautions to all skill development situations
- Understand the sequence of skill acquisition for simple and complex skills associated with gymnastics
- Display and communicate learning through multiple digital tools

Course format: Movement Education has been adapted for remote delivery. This course is entirely online through asynchronous delivery with weekly check-in points which are highly recommended.

Instructional methods:

Assignments which build in complexity
Individual and group discussions through online forums

Group projects which reinforce learning developed throughout semester.

Assignments and Evaluation:

Weekly assignments (5% or 10%)	55%
Routine creation and reflection	10%
Teaching Analysis	10%
Activities Binder	25%

Additional Information

Log onto zoom meetings or attend office hours through your official McGill zoom account. Those who do not comply will be removed from the meeting(s).

Once you have submitted an assignment, it will be considered a final submission. No additional submissions will be accepted. Assignments should be submitted at the specified time or a 5% penalty per day will be applied. Students having difficulty completing assignments should notify the instructor prior to the submission date.

You are required to attend the course section that you have been assigned to.

To protect your privacy, the Faculty of Education will only reply to you at your official e-mail address at McGill. Please be sure that you check your McGill e-mail on a regular basis. Email response: you can expect an email reply with 24-48 hours during the work week.

Please note that you will be assessed on content, grammar, coherency, clarity, and writing techniques as this evaluation procedure will assist in the development of your professional Professional competency #2

Caveat:

A missed test / assignment will result in a grade of zero for that evaluation. Students expecting to miss an assignment / test must contact the instructor as soon as possible, provide documentation to support the reason for absence, and be given permission to miss the assignment. Acceptability for missing an assignment may be limited to medical and personal emergencies, but will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

The Faculty of Education has enacted, effective Summer 2020, the “McGill Principles of Practice, Behaviour and Ethical Conduct for Teacher Candidates” Please familiarize yourself with these policies.

McGill University Policy on Academic Integrity, Written Work, and Accommodation of Religious Holy Days

McGill University values academic integrity. Therefore, all students must understand the meaning and consequences of cheating, plagiarism and other academic offences under the Code of Student Conduct and Disciplinary Procedures (see <http://www.mcgill.ca/integrity/> for more information).

L'université McGill attache une haute importance à l'honnêteté académique. Il incombe par conséquent à tous les étudiants de comprendre ce que l'on entend par tricherie, plagiat et autres infractions académiques, ainsi que les conséquences que peuvent avoir de telles actions, selon le Code de conduite de l'étudiant et des procédures disciplinaires (pour de plus amples renseignements, veuillez consulter le site (<http://www.mcgill.ca/integrity/>)).

In accord with McGill University's Charter of Students' Rights, students in this course have the right to submit in English or in French any written work that is to be graded.
(approved by Senate on 21 January, 2009)

Students who because of religious commitment cannot meet academic obligations, other than final examinations, on certain holy days are responsible for informing their instructor, with two weeks' notice of each conflict. Possible solutions include: (a) rescheduling the evaluation, or (b) preparing an alternative evaluation for that particular student, or (c) shifting the weight normally assigned to the evaluation to the weight assigned to the remaining evaluation. When the instructor and student are unable to agree on suitable accommodation, the matter will be referred to the Associate Dean, who may request official documentation confirming the student's religious affiliation. The Associate Dean will convey the decision to the instructor and student.
