WELCOME OUR NEW CHAIR: JULIE CÔTÉ

"I'm excited to be the new leader of a young and innovative Department. Together, through meaningful research and quality teaching, we strive to lead the way to optimizing health through physical activity."

THE FUTURE OF LEARNING

Our new teaching lab provides students with access to state of the art space and equipment. This creates new opportunities to learn and practice skills for fitness assessment and exercise prescription for people of all ages and conditions.

PROMOTING HEALTH THROUGH PHYSICAL ACTIVITY

The new McGill Research Center for Physical Activity and Health (PATH) is a home for conducting innovative and impactful research into the role of physical activity in promoting health across the lifespan, from cells to society.
