

Jack Schoel/Dr. & Mrs. Hirsh Rosenfeld Scholarships in Jewish Education

Description:

Established in 1986 to commemorate an act of kindness by Sir Edward Beatty, then Chancellor of McGill University. Awarded to an undergraduate or graduate student(s) on the basis of high academic achievement, sustained engagement with youth via regular involvement or leadership in Jewish educational programs, and/or completion of one or more approved Jewish Studies courses. Awarded by the Faculty of Education's Committee on Student Affairs on the recommendation of the Coordinator of the Jewish Education Programs.

In your Personal Statement, outline your eligibility for the award, based on the following criteria:

- Your sustained engagement with youth via regular involvement or leadership in Jewish educational programs in the past year; such activities can be paid/unpaid but should emphasize the key component of Jewish education (e.g. instructing on Jewish religion, culture, history, language, etc.)

Eligibility Criteria:

- Undergraduate or graduate student in the Faculty of Education
- High academic achievement
- Sustained engagement with youth via regular involvement or leadership in Jewish educational programs, and/or completion of one or more approved Jewish Studies courses
