

Working in a laboratory?

Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System WHMIS Training

- ☠ Obligatory for all graduate students who will be working with hazardous materials (chemicals and biohazardous)
- ☠ Promotes access to health & safety information to protect workers from the adverse effects of hazardous materials

Radiation Training

- ☢ Obligatory for all graduate students who will be working with radioactive materials

Biosafety Training

- ☠ Available to graduate students who will be working with biohazardous materials

To register and for more information, consult our schedule at www.mcgill.ca/ehs

Questions? Contact Environmental Health & Safety

ehs@mcgill.ca

