Your name and/or student number SHOULD NOT APPEAR ANYWHERE IN THE MATERIAL SUBMITTED other than this form. All pieces of material will be numbered to ensure anonymity.

Entries must be printed double-spaced and in a regular 12-pitch font (italics or bold are of course acceptable as part of an occasional desired effect). A normal maximum of 20 pages should be observed by each entrant. Writers of lengthy prose fiction and writers of drama may submit a single work of fiction or drama up to 40 double-spaced pages but should not include any other works in their submission.

The competition is restricted to students who have not previously won the First Prize.

Submissions (in TRIPLICATE) should be handed in to the Student Affairs Office (Arts 155). (Three copies of submission in one sealed envelope (8 ½ x 11) with this form stapled to the front.)

DEADLINE: Tuesday, APRIL 19, 2016
