

Fall 2016 Epidemiology Seminars

Date	Speaker	Title
September 12, 2016	No Seminar – EBOH Research Meet & Greet
September 19, 2016	Christina Wolfson	51,000 participants have been recruited, now what? An update on the Canadian Longitudinal Study on Aging - pdf
September 26, 2016	Jason Guertin	PharmacoEconomics - PharmacoEpidemiology's little half-cousin - pdf
October 3, 2016	Kristan Aronson	Shift work and biomarker research with implications for cancer and cardiovascular disease - pdf
October 10, 2016	NO SEMINAR - THANKSGIVING
October 17, 2016	Michal Abrahamowicz	Time-related Challenges in modeling time-to-event data: New flexible Methods and Applications - pdf
October 24, 2016	Hassen Ghannem	The « Together in Health » project to prevent NCD risk Factors in Sousse, Tunisia - pdf
October 31, 2016	Bruce W. Case	Does 'Talc' Cause Cancer? An object lesson in the importance of mineral definitions in Occupational and Environmental Epidemiology - pdf
November 7, 2016	Sean Hennessy	Trend-in-Trend: A Novel Research Design for Exposures with Marked Trends in Prevalence - pdf
November 14, 2016	Emily G. McDonald	The Canadian National Clinical Teaching Unit Study: A clinical trial to reduce potentially inappropriate medication use in the elderly - pdf
November 21, 2016	Brent Richards	Mendelian randomization: Can genetics tell us anything about non-genetic exposures? - pdf