Faculty Club Newsletter April 2011 Edition

Thanks to all members who attended "A Night at The Opera." The sold-out event was a success! Several were left on a waiting list to attend the dinner featuring light opera and operetta classics from singers studying at the Schulich School of Music. Since this occasion was so captivating, the McGill Faculty Club will bring you another evening filled with talent highlighting Jazz, Blues and Gospel music.

The McGill Faculty Club is proud to be able to cater to any of your needs. Whether you have an event to plan or simply want to lounge in a tranquil spot, we have the right space for you. Let us introduce you to Nicolas Zrihen, our new Assistant Manager in charge of Sales, Food & Beverage. Mr. Zrihen is the right person to help you plan meetings or venues with a creative twist! Visiting the Deep South

April 11th to 15th

Let your taste buds head towards the “Deep South” this week as the Faculty Club offers a special menu. Start the meal off by savouring the South Carolina She-Crab soup, continue with a catfish, chicken or vegetarian main course and finish your meal with a satiating sweet potato and pecan pie. Who can pass up menu items such as Creole-style chicken and prawn gumbo, hush puppies and rum-glazed spare ribs?
