Faculty Club Newsletter, May 2019 Edition

Everyone loves spring because it's a sign that warmer days are up ahead. As the days get longer, everything blossoms in the sun. It's a great reason to get together with co-workers and students to celebrate the season over delicious food and drinks in a pleasant ambiance. The McGill Faculty Club proudly caters to all of your needs including a great inexpensive breakfast in the Main Dining Room starting at 7:45 am. Whether it's an informal gathering with colleagues over food, snacks and drinks or a large meeting, we're sure to have the proper space size perfectly suited for your occasion. Adrian Chu is our Events Specialist, who offers consultations for such gatherings. From food to meeting rooms to timing and venues, he will help personalize your events, making each one unique!

I would like to take this opportunity to point out the importance of making reservations for breakfast, lunch or dinner in the Main Dining room, we are often very busy and we do not want anyone to be disappointed in not being able to get a table because we are full.

Bridge Tuesdays, May 14th and 28th -- Maude Abbott Room. 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm

Twice a month, throughout the academic year, the McGill Committee for Retired Professors organizes bridge matches. As always, novices and experts are welcome to join in on the games and be in on the fun. It's a great way to socialize with others who share a passion for this friendly game of strategy. It's a popular event that's both relaxing and challenging.
